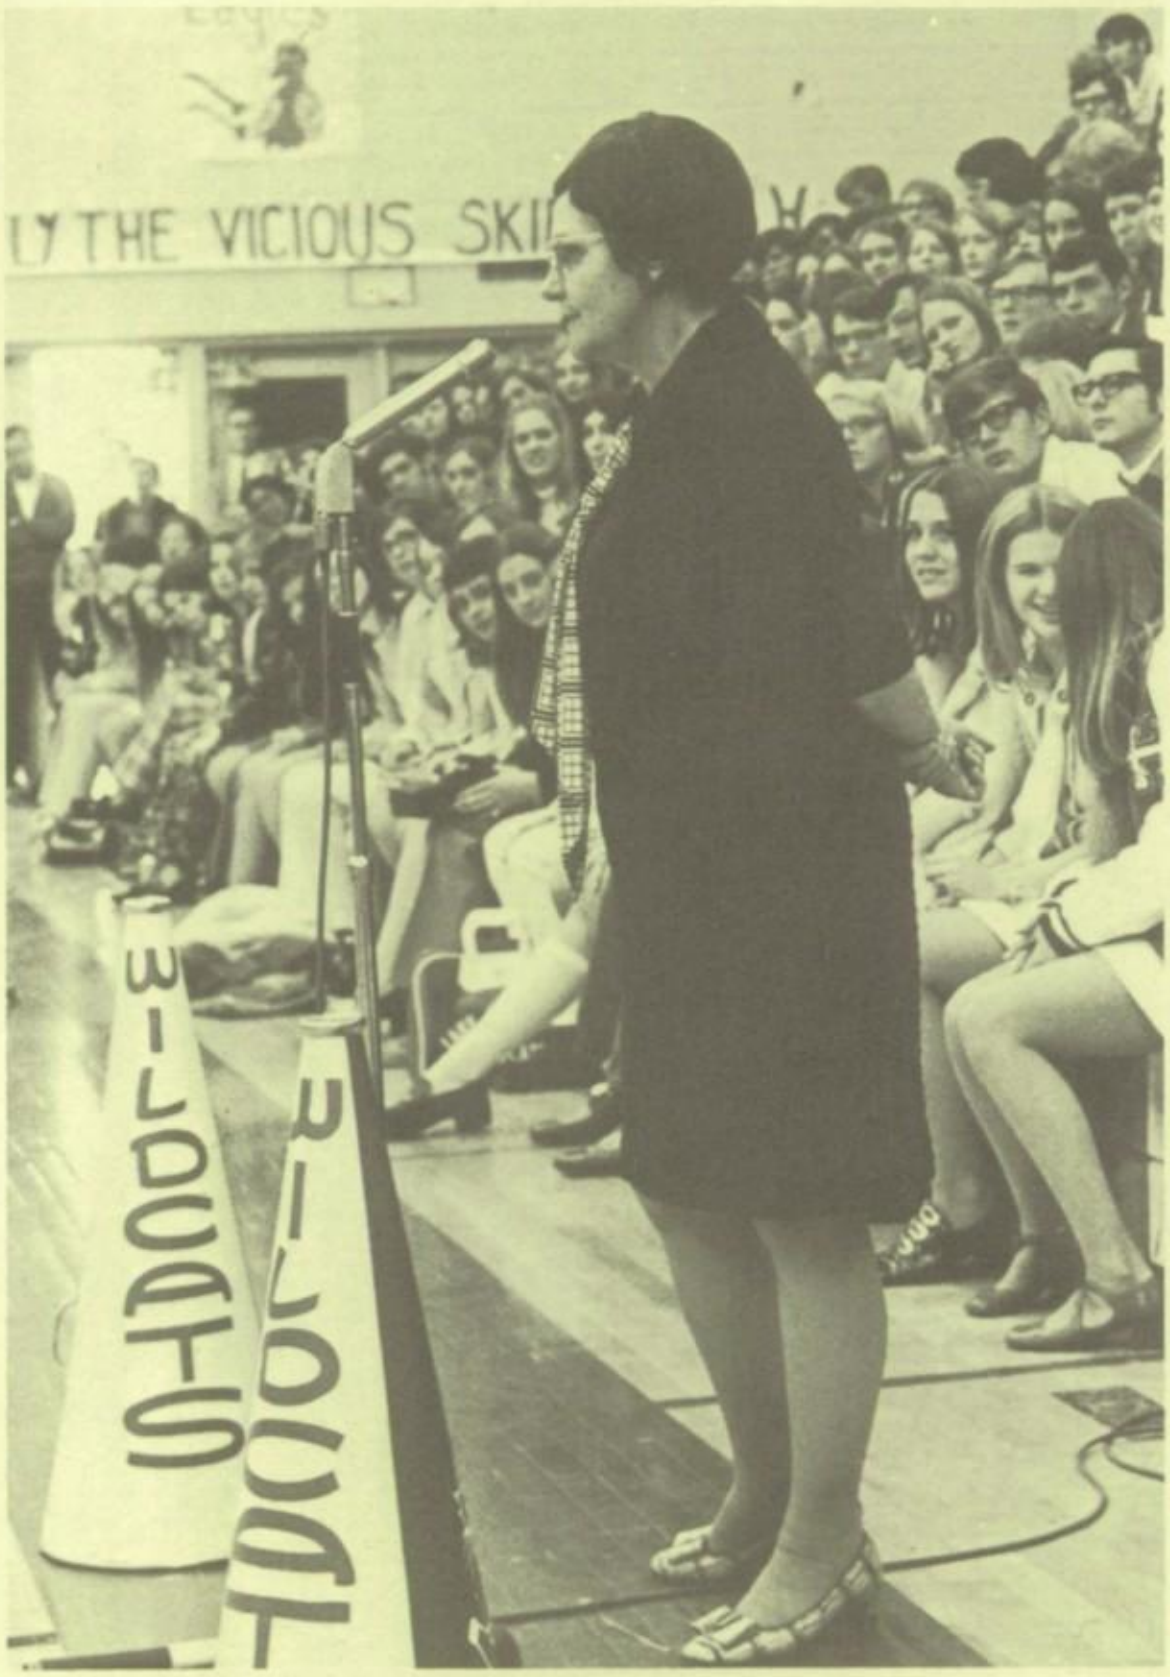
Mrs. Mary Marlar



In Honor of Mrs. Mary Marlar

Teaching at Lake Highlands for ten years, Mrs. Mary Marlar has enthusiastically devoted her time and energy to both the educational and extracurricular phases of our school. Teaching government and Texas history, and sponsoring the Y-Teens are several of her past and present contributions to LH. Each year she plans the Patriotic Assembly and helps organize the Baccalaureate and Commencement Exercises. The Marlar family also awards the Ronnie Eller Award to one outstanding senior boy each year at the Awards Assembly. Mrs. Marlar has been honored as the ICT "Teacher of the Month," and the Future Teachers' "Outstanding Faculty" recipient. The 1971 WILDCAT staff is proud to dedicate the WILDCAT to Mrs. Mary Marlar.

"Maybe when I've done
it all,
seen all there is to see,
I'll find out I still cannot run away from me."

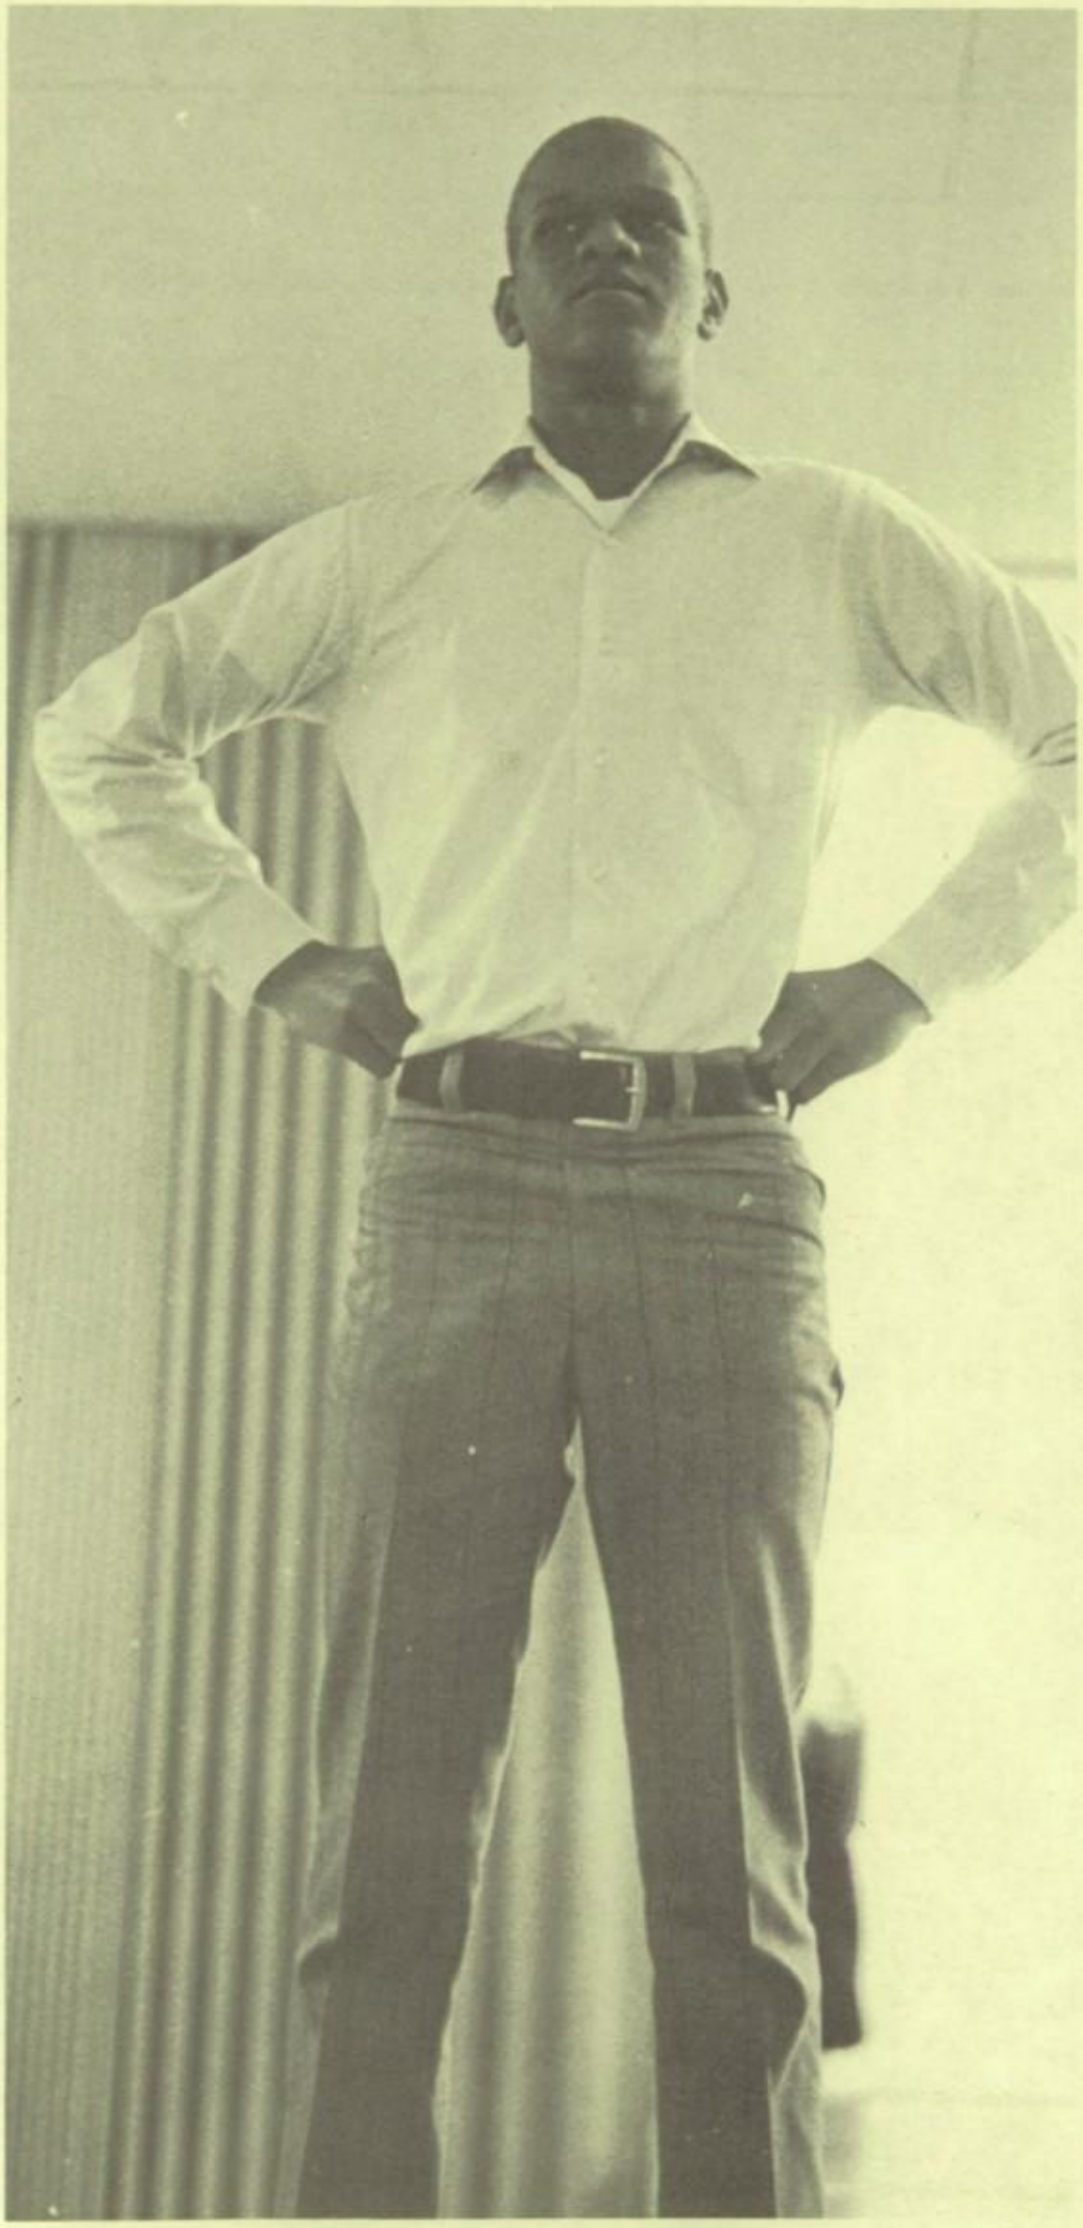
— Rod McKuen



"Always alone
at home or in a crowd the single man off on his private cloud caught in a world that few men understand,
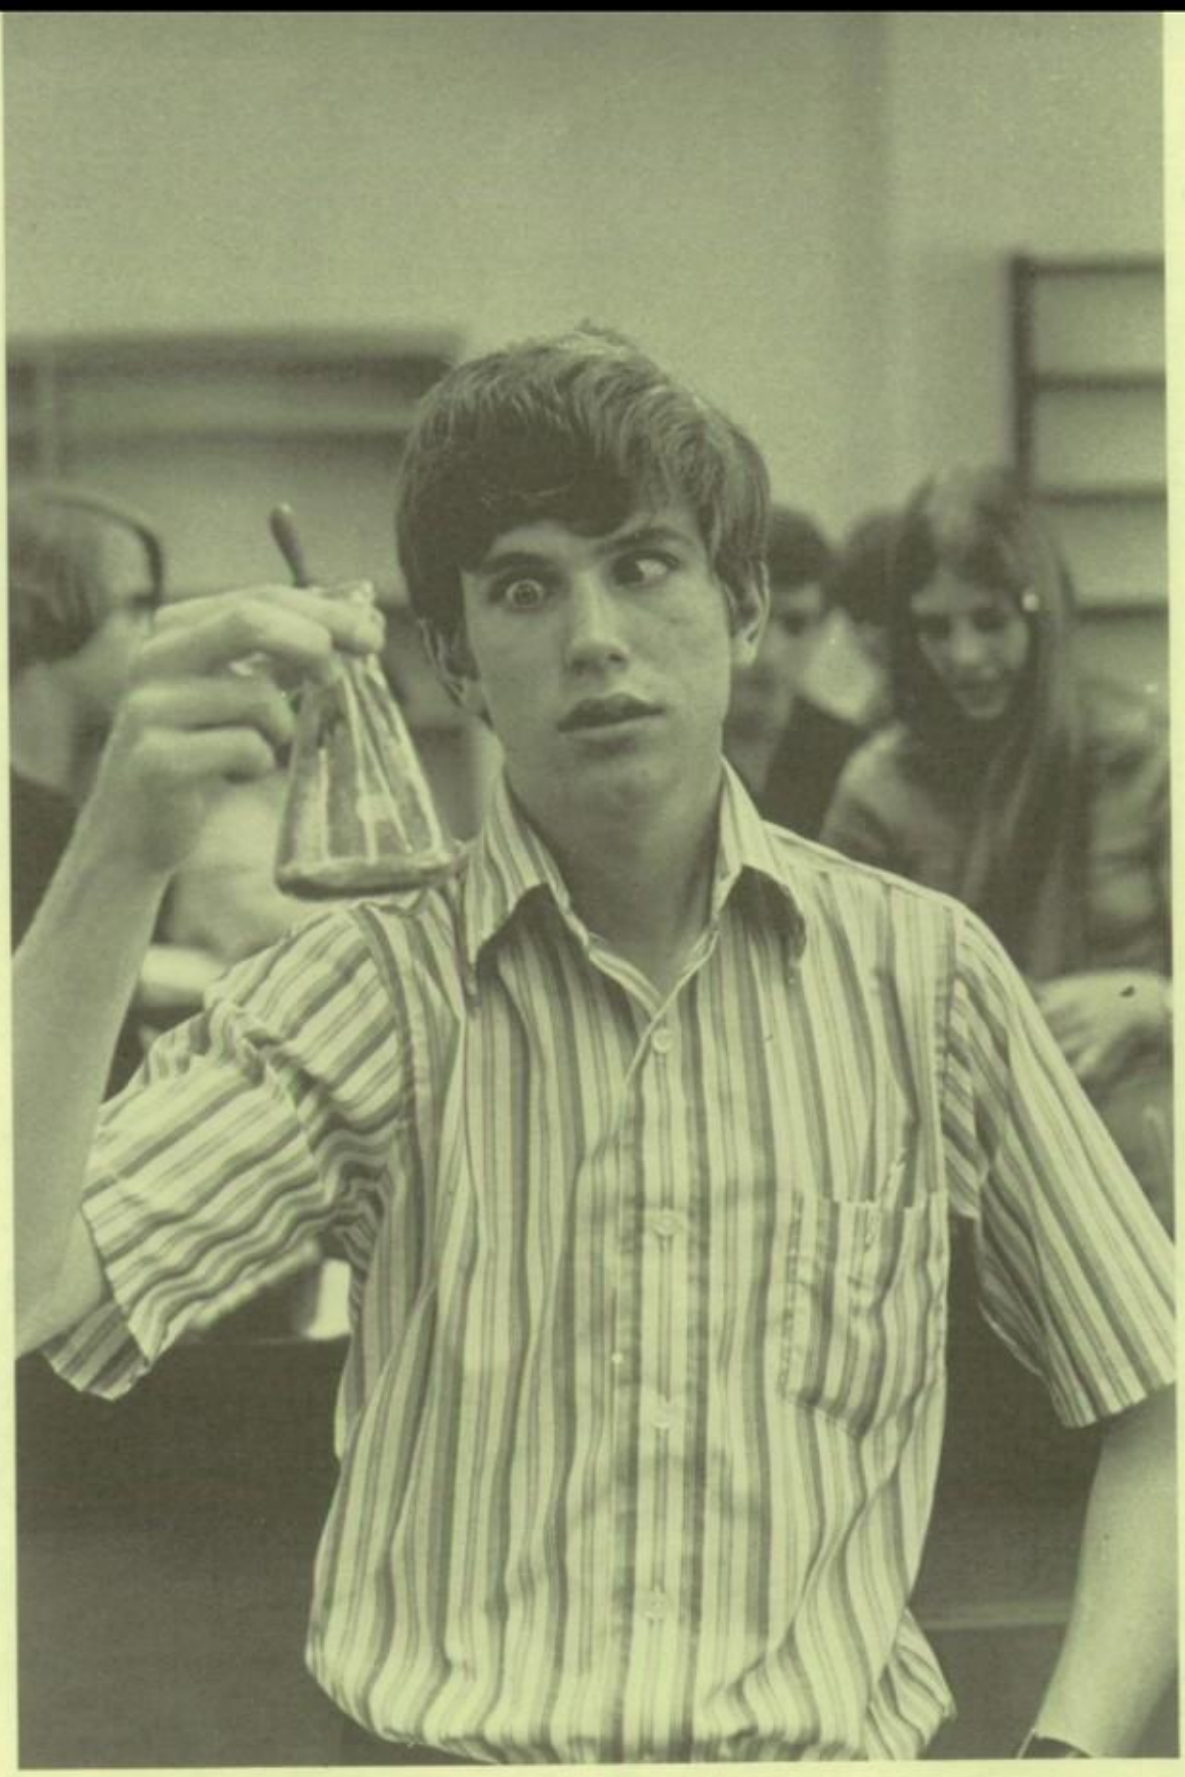
I am what I am,
a single man."

—Rod McKuen



"God let us be different.
Let's not wear mustaches and funny clothes.
Let's not let our hair grow so long it covers up our eyes and makes us unable to see the world.
Never mind the world —
Let's not miss each other."

— Rod McKuen

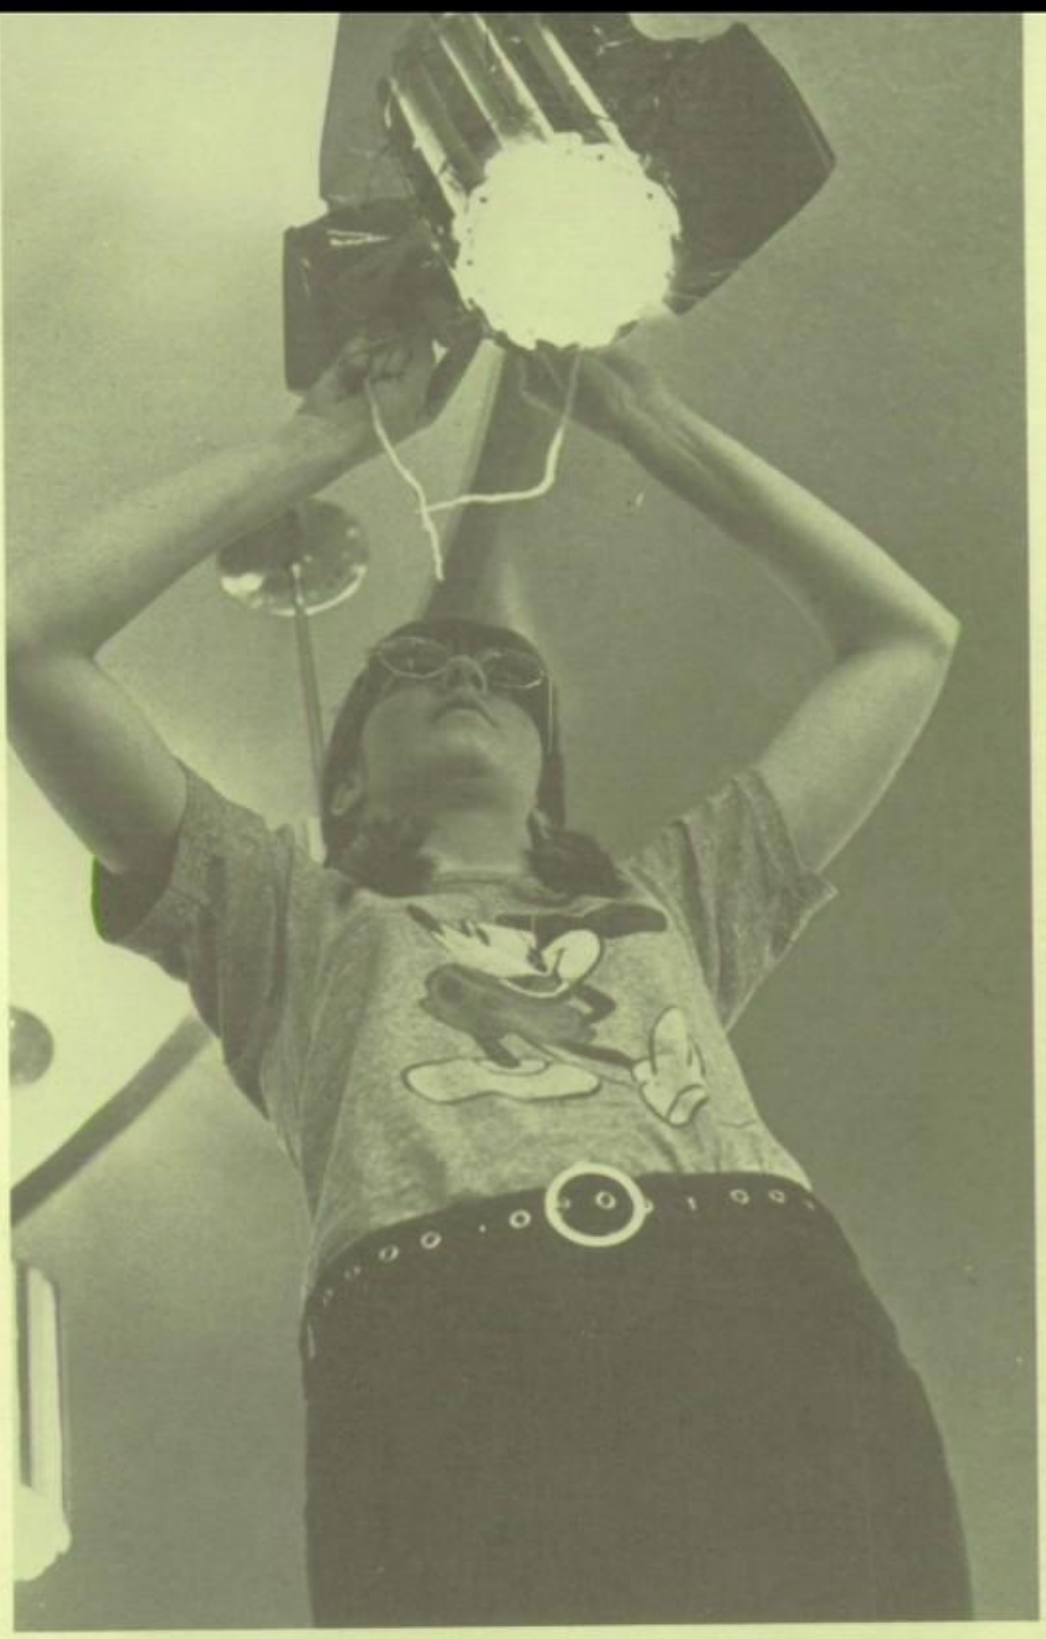
"Your smile as it widens on your face is like a child running off across the hill.
And I love your smile
as I love my own."

— Rod McKuen



"Each of us was made by God,
beautiful in his mind's eye.
Those of us that turned out sound should look across our shoulders once and help the weak ones to their feet.
It only takes an outstretched hand."

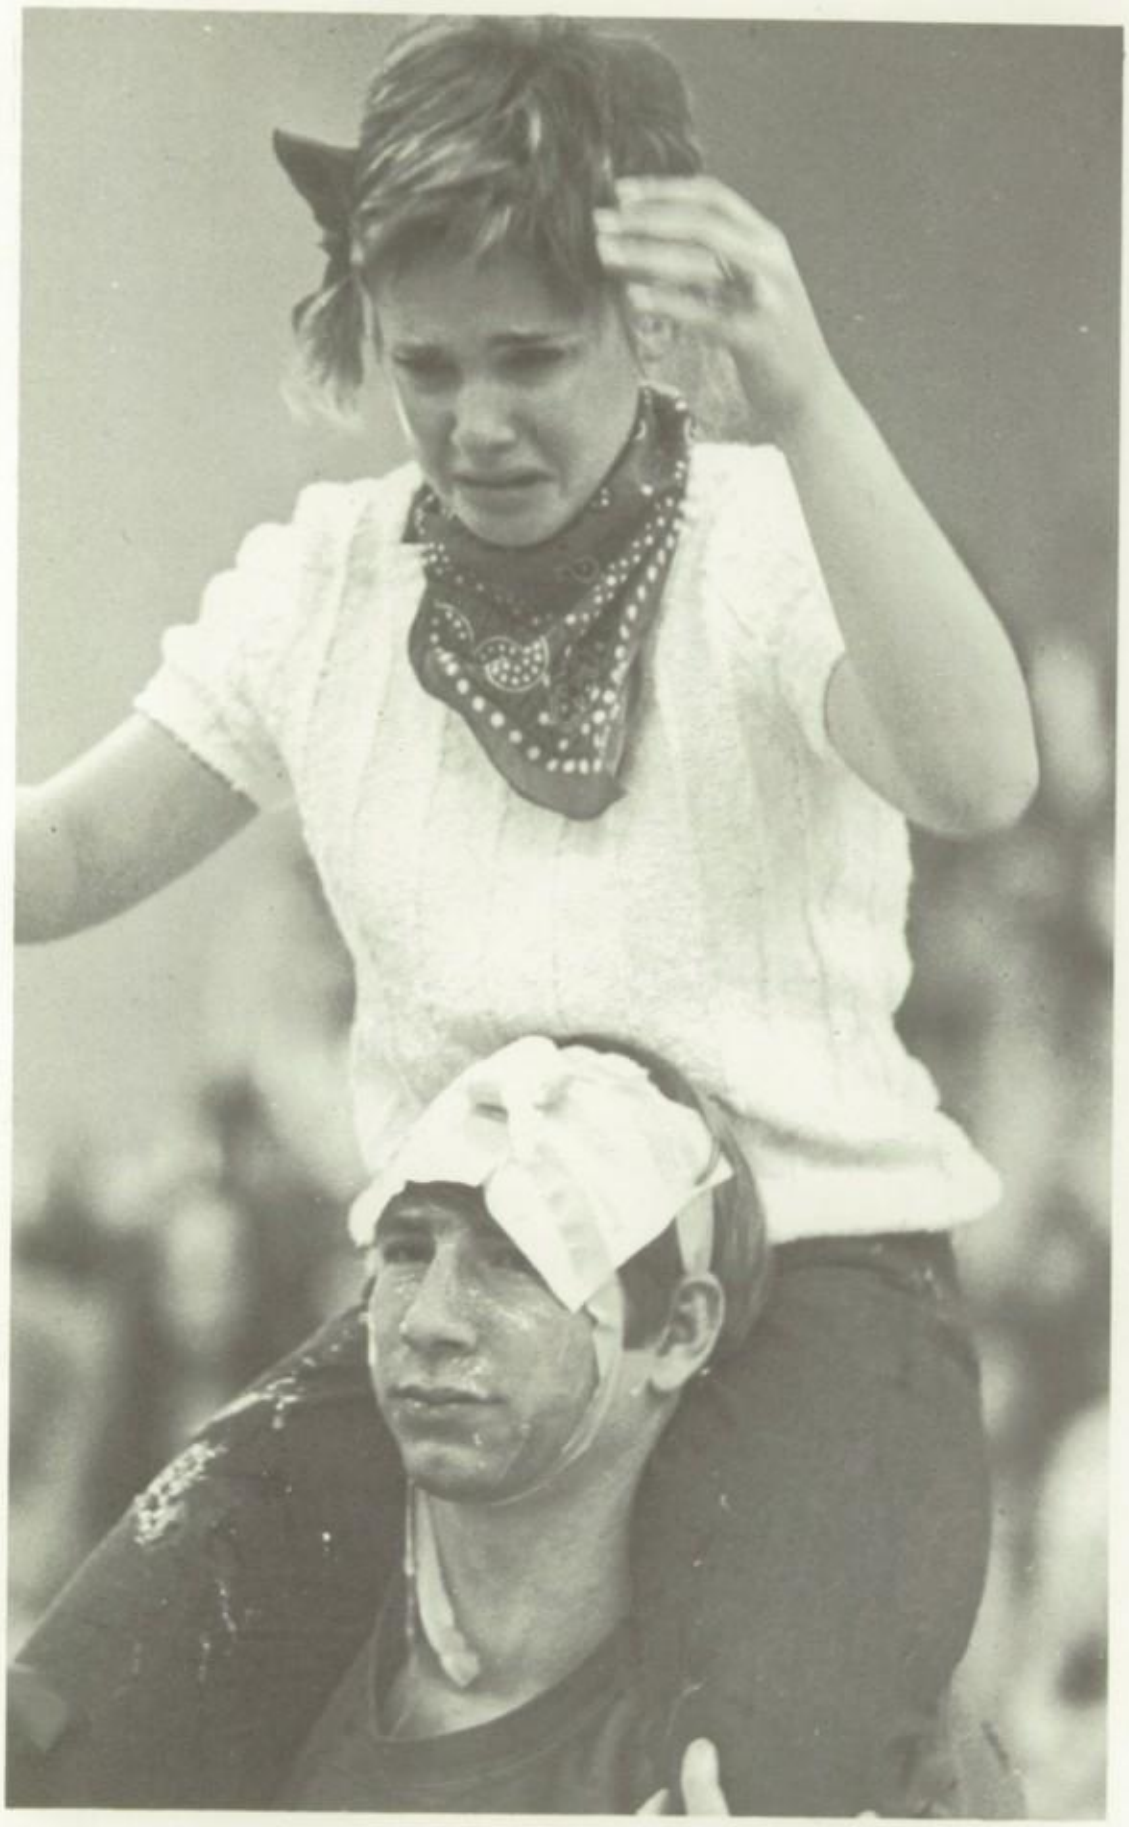
AFS Hosted Annual Olympics



Adding excitement to the month of December and providing money for next year's foreign exchange students was the annual AFS Girl's Olympics. The stiff competition between classes added to the spirit and enthusiasm which was displayed during the crazy action-packed hour. Redneck Seniors crowned their Sweetheart, Clarence Goins, by collecting the most money during the previous week. However, for the second consecutive year, the Class of '72 pulled through with the winning score.

RIGHT: Defeat is not only bitter, but also surprisingly soggy for egg-smasher Deby Carr and her proud steed, Steve Moore. BELOW: Sideline thrills and continuous excitement are provided by the sexy Senior cheerleaders.

Revue Began Activities

With a tremendous exhibition of talent the Varsity Revue '70 kicked off the year's Homecoming activities. The show boasted performances by individual singers and groups, as well as dancers and various school organizations. Between acts were hilarious run-ons and skits. Included in the show was the presentation of the Homecoming Queen nominees and on Thursday night, a rousing pep rally. The Revue is an annual event, sponsored by the Wildcat Band, this year under the direction of Eddie Green. It is a special tribute to the Varsity football players and returning LH exes.

Homecoming Tensions Mounted

Homecoming '70. A year for tradition. Competitive hall decorations, the bonfire, a pep rally, returning exes, pre-game festivities, and, of course, the eventful gridiron victory. But also a year for a little new. A Student Council sponsored Homecoming float, a Senior Class nominated Homecoming queen and a very unusually decorated dance featuring the "Derek Jones Party," and the organization of an Alumni Association. All of this, plus much more, added together to bring back, and make, memories of the exciting days of high school.

Guests Delighted in Performances

Red Masque, revitalized and under new sponsors, throughout the year displayed some stunning hidden talent. After months of wearing practices, under the direction of Mr. Robert Harris, came the three-night presentation of Shakespeare's comedy "Twelfth Night." A case of mistaken identity and the physical likeness of a brother and sister proved to be an entertaining plot for the ambitious cast. Later in the year was a slap stick comedy "Great Caesar's Ghost" whereby unusual lighting and sound effects were necessary to carry off the overwhelming success. THIS PAGE: Sir Toby Belch (Phil Stone) harangues a lecture to Olivia's attendant (Robin Wade) in "Twelfth Night."

Classes Endeavored in Varied Projects

With dual purposes each class began the year trying to out-do each other with hall decorations and screaming pep rallys. Branching out, individual projects began to appear. Bake sales, car washes, a dessert social, chili and chicken dinners not only provided needed funds for upcoming activities but drew the groups together to work as a whole. As the end of the year approached, Seniors emitted sighs of relief while Juniors and Sophomores looked on in envy and began planning the forthcoming years.

Highlandettes Celebrated at Spring Show

Highlighting the Drill Team activities of the year, came "Celebrate," a salute to the various holidays of the year. Hours of practicing and sewing costumes made the show a success as the first project of new sponsor, Miss Mary Louise Villeret. Serving as emcees were the 1970-71 officers.

Key Club Again Defeated

Hopes of at last overcoming the powerful faculty-composed basketball team were shattered as the Key Club was once again defeated in a rivalrous game. The contest, held annually, is a moneymaking project for the boy's service organization. Key Club cheerleaders added to the fiasco with their hilarious antics and stunts.

Favorites Honored in Elegance

Amid bright red valentine hearts and bouncing pink balloons, honors were awarded to LH favorites, as selected by the student body. The 1971 Favorites Ball was co-sponsored by the Student Council and the WILDCAT staff. Music was provided by the popular "Rose Colored Glass." The colorful decorations and small, elegant side tables added to the romantic mood of Valentine's Day.

OPPOSITE PAGE: Bonnie Landrum and Tom Draper beam their surprise and pleasure upon being selected "Most Likely to Succeed." THIS PAGE TOP: Spirit, friendliness, and warmth are illustrated by deserving Chuck Thompson and Peni Atwood, Mr. and Miss LHHS. THIS PAGE BOTTOM: A break in format by "Rose Colored Glass" gives dancers the opportunity to tryout some new steps.

Patriotic Assembly Saluted America

Each year a special tribute to our country and what it stands for is made in the form of the Patriotic Assembly. For the first time the program was given a night of its own. Organized by Mrs. Mary Marlar, the assembly included a speech by leading computer industrialist H. Ross Perot. An outstanding performance was presented by the LH Choir and Symphonic Band. A moving original dialogue was given by Chip Harrington with a background by choir members Pam Neese and Earl Bills. Concluding the Program was a salute to the American flag.

Formal Ball Climaxed Y-Teen Year

In high fashion, the 1970-71 Y-Teens and officers were presented to parents and fellow club members. Pink carnations, roses, and the "Theme from Love Story," provided a delicate background for this formal occasion at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel. Adding to the Presentation were the special recognitions and gifts for President Karen Hunt and sponsors Mrs. Lynn Tull and Mrs. Becky French. Flowing formals and fragrant corsages all added to the salute to the many services rendered by these hard working girls.

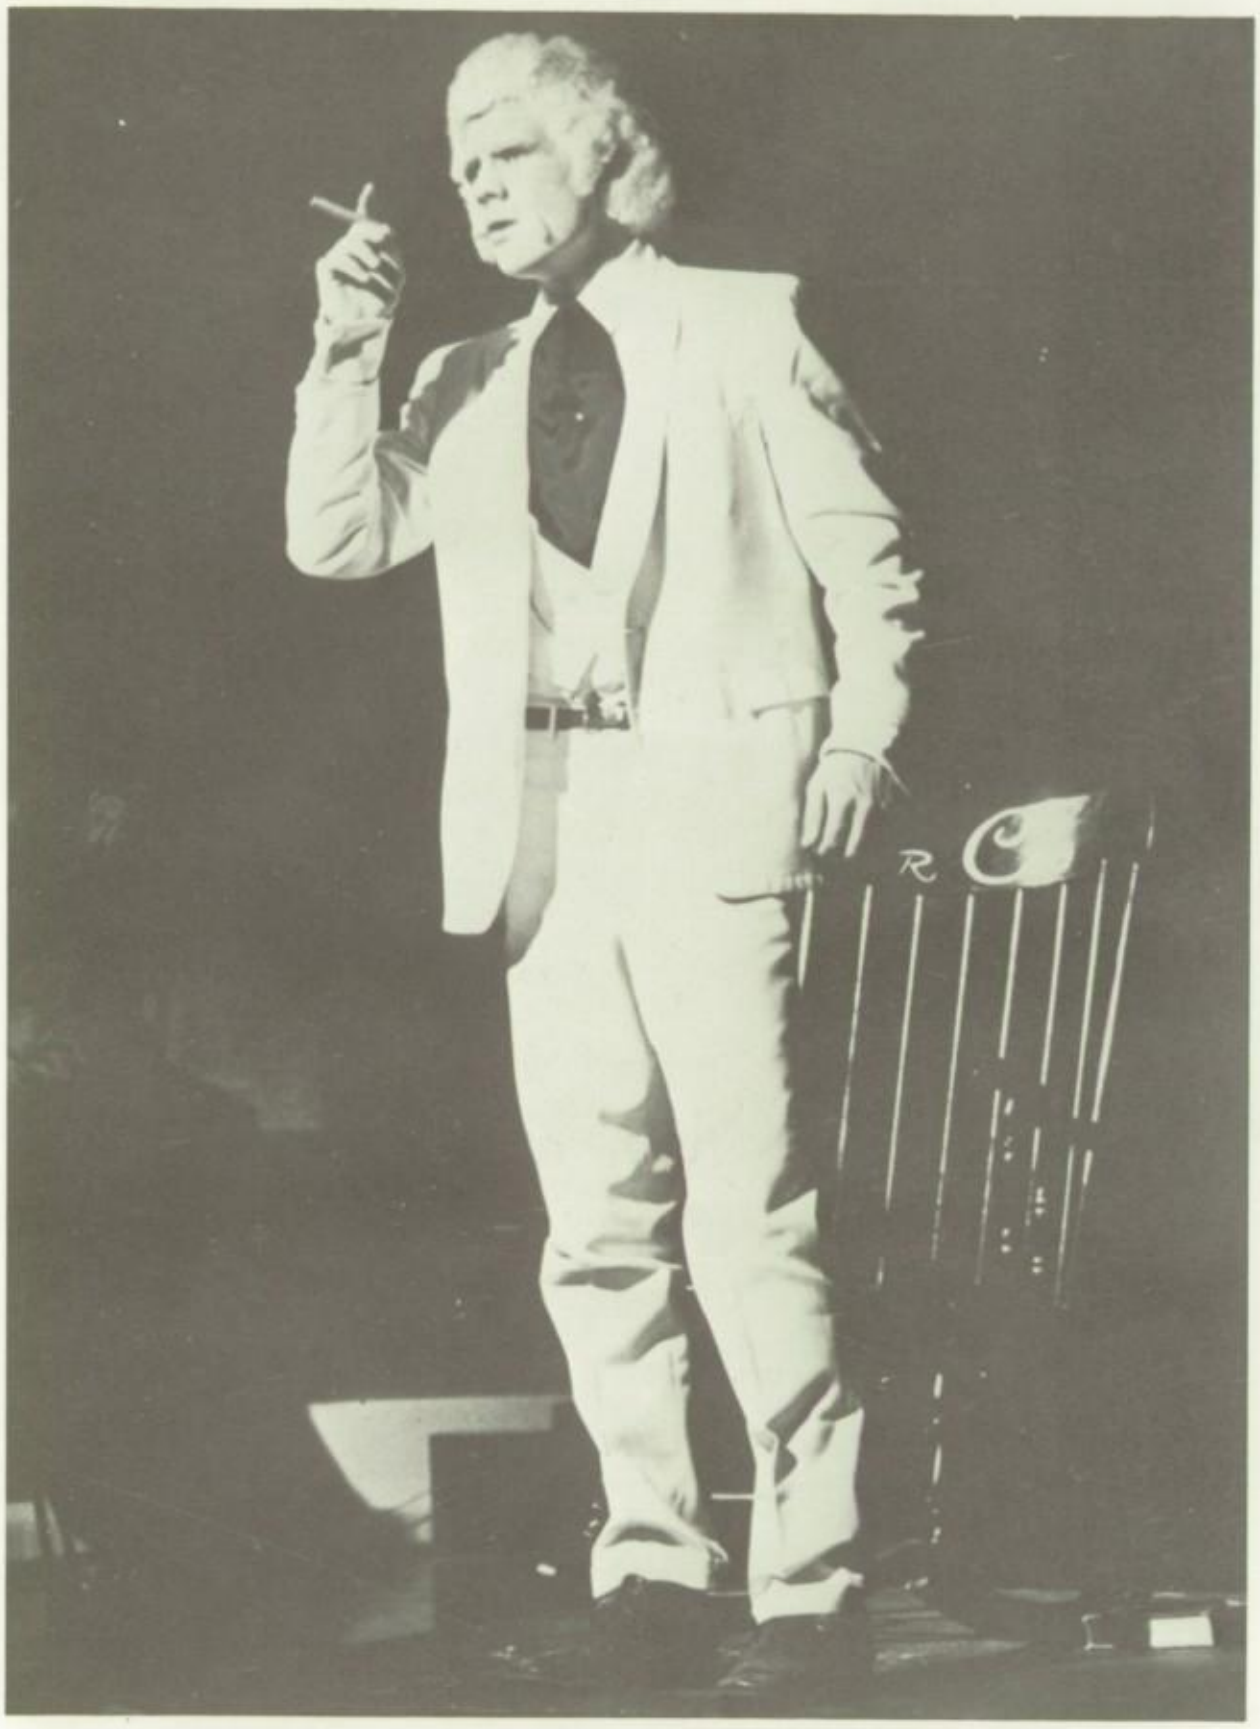
Theatre Reading Portrayed Author's Life



Outstanding backdrops, unusual costumes, hours of practice, and superb acting blended together to enhance the production "An Evening with Mark Twain." Done in readers' theatre style, the original script by Lynda Cleveland was a study of the unusual man in his younger days. The readers' theatre style has the script before the character and much more emphasis is placed on the reader because he must place the setting in the viewer's mind. The show was the third of it's type presented by the LH speech Forensenic Association. Along with the show on two nights was a dinner served by club members.

Speech Club Hosted "America on Parade"

LH's speech club, the Forensenic Association under the leadership of Miss Lynda Cleveland, this year organized and sponsored the third "All Wildcat Sing." "America on Parade" was composed of various skits by each club and run-ons from Association members. Each year a first, second and third place are awarded to the best club based on their performance as well as their cooperation with the production crew. Earning the perpetual trophy were the Y-Teens with their slow motion basketball game.

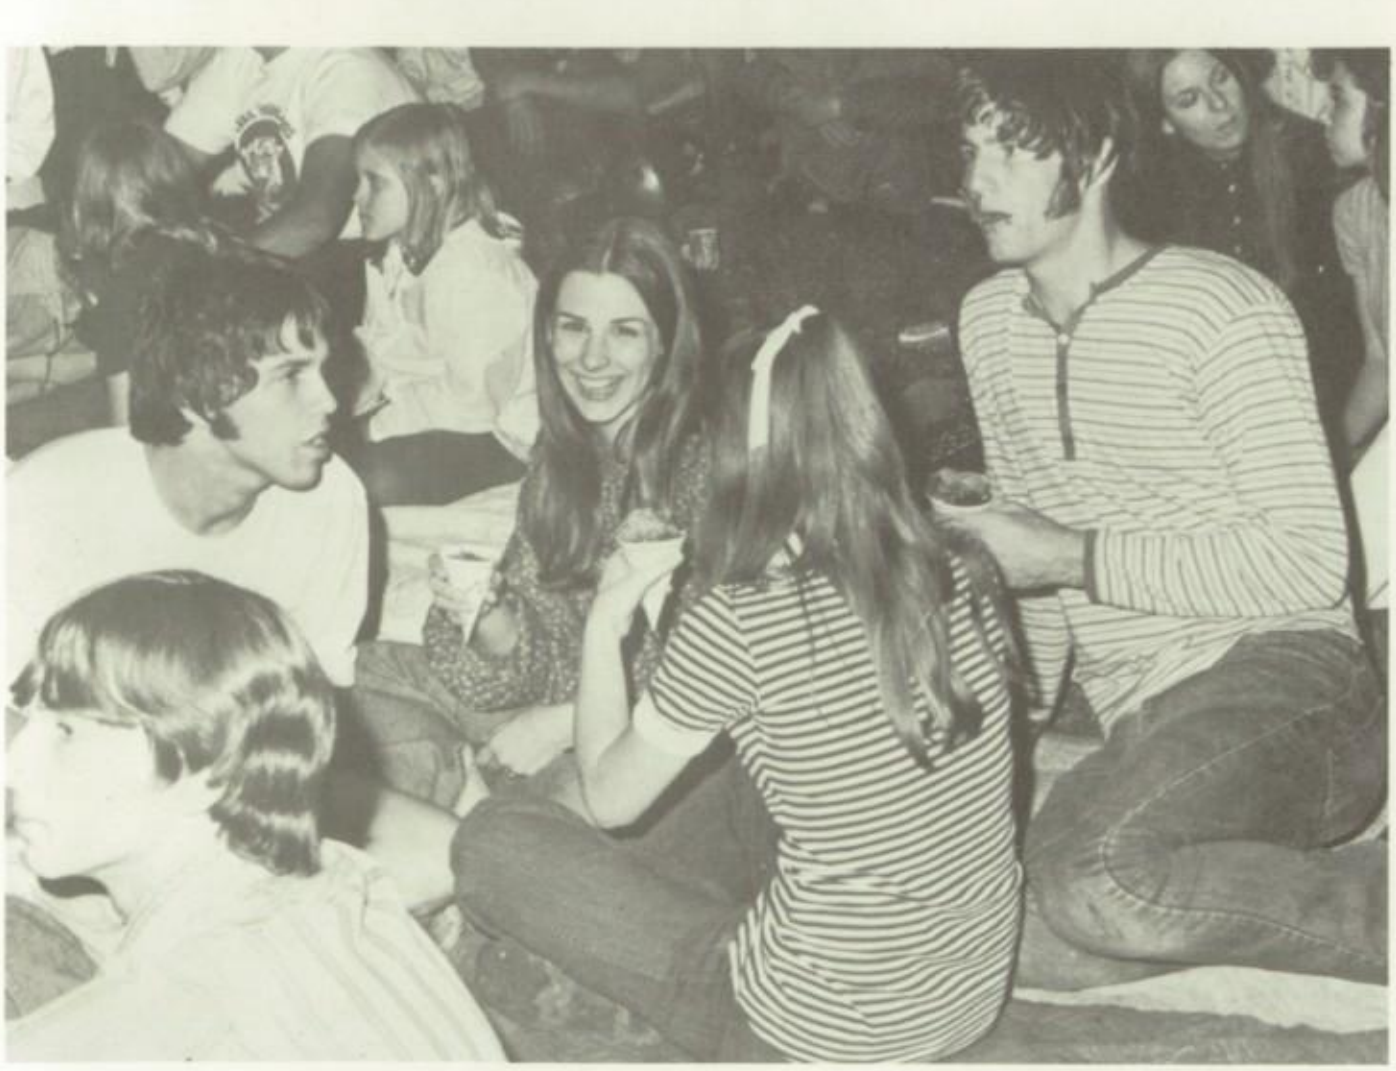
New Council United Clubs

For the first time in LH history, an Interclub Council was organized. The club, composed of the president of individual clubs and sponsored by the Student Council, strove to have clubs work together. The Festival of Life carnival proved to be the major project of the organization. Each group was responsible for a booth with proceeds going to the Lake Highlands Youth Activities Commission and Shindo House for drug rehabilitants.



Elections and Tryouts Wrapped-Up Year

Each year outgoing Seniors must face the consequences of maturity as their positions are filled during hectic weeks of elections and tryouts. Drill Team, cheerleaders, Student Council, and individual clubs busy themselves trying to maintain a standard of leadership built up through the school's history.

Varied Assemblies Spiced Year

Breaking the monotony of the every day schedule each year are the various assemblies, projects, and programs sponsored by different organizations. Choir programs, ecology speakers, vocal groups along with Valograms and Red Carnations all were entertaining to students as well as educational.

"Hillbilly Weddin' " Staged by Seniors

A backwoods family and their "Hillbilly Weddin' " proved to be the final group effort of Seniors '71. The three-act play was under the direction of Mr. Robert Harris and student director Sharon O'Conner. The Feud'n and wedd'n took place on two nights and was produced entirely by Seniors in an attempt to add to their treasury. The hillbilly accent provided a tremendous challenge as well as a little spice in the school's productions.

Seniors Share Final Memories

As the years of sharing and learning together end, a party mood arose. After three years of dinners and bake sales, the time came for the biggest splurge. The Senior Prom, the once-in-a-lifetime affair with tuxes and formals, was finally upon the class. The overwhelming size and elegance of the Apparel Mart's Great Hall was a very appropriate selection for the gala event.

The not-to-be-forgotten Senior parents added their bith by sponsoring an All Night Party after Graduation. A dinner started the evening filled with bowling, pool, archery, dancing, and door prizes which ended all too soon when students departed for the last time.

Commencement Completed Year

Beginning the final ceremonies was Baccalaureate, a worship service held for the entire class. Following an anthem by the LH choir, Rev. W. B. J. Martin spoke on the questions and challenges of life.

On Wednesday, June 2, Pomp and Circumstance filled the air as robed Seniors processed in before admiring relatives, friends and faculty members. A welcoming address was made by the salutatorian preceding the presentation of the Class. Twelve years of work were finally rewarded upon the announcement of "You are now graduated." One span of growth had passed and the future was left open to fulfill.

Picnic Held at Tennison

The first free day saw Seniors at Tennison Park for an enjoyable afternoon together. The surplus Senior fund supplied the drinks and the "graduates to be" shared laughter and games.

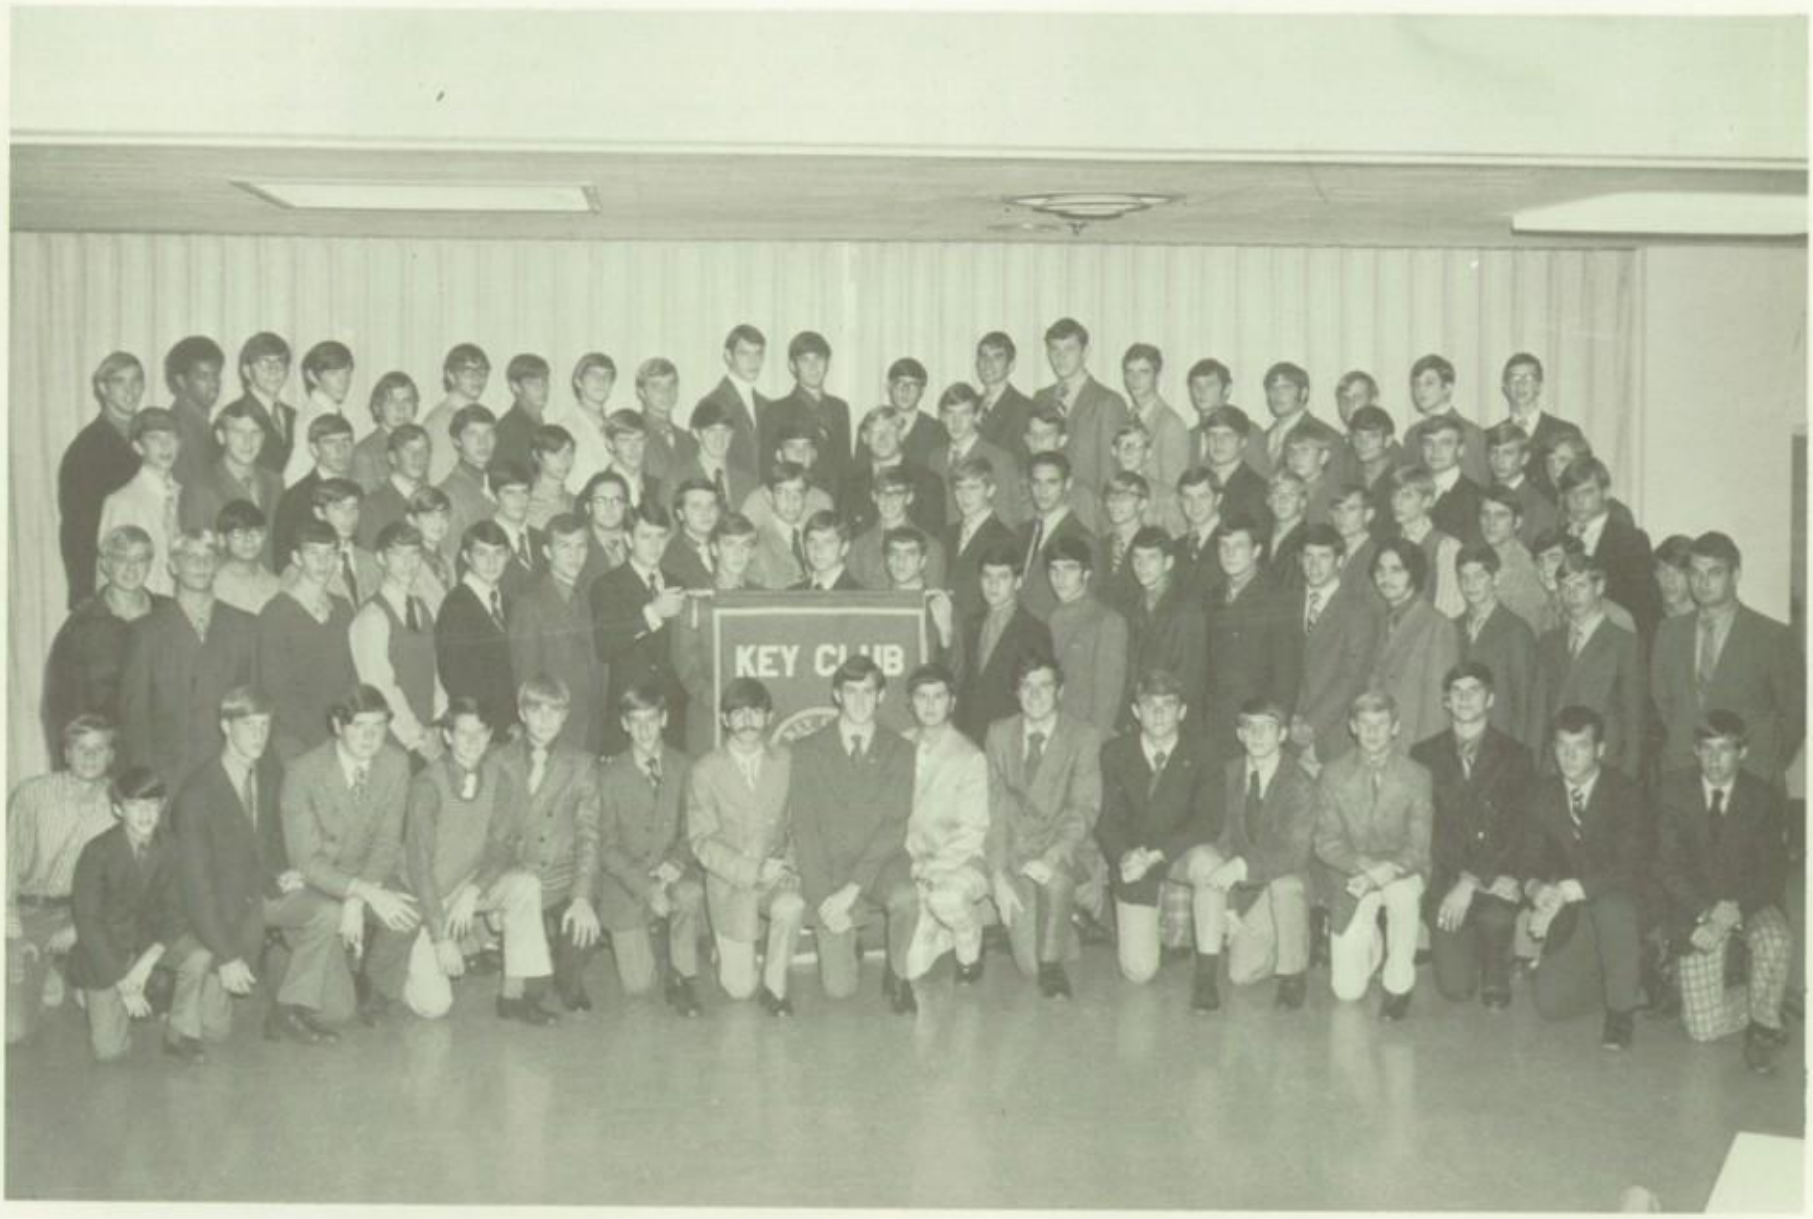
Key Club Varied Programs



Contrary to popular belief, the Key Club did not make keys; however, they did direct the March of Dimes, sponsored the Bellboys, and struggled with the coaches in the annual Key Club-Faculty basketball fiasco. Leading the club in summer concerts, clean-ups and open house hosts, was sponsor, Mr. Charlie Moore.

Officers are: Bobby Hill, Pres.; Tom Draper, Sec.; John Vernon and Donna Lennox, V. Pres.; Mitch Mitchell, Treas.; and Kevin White, Kim Dinsmoor, and Ted Ubben, Rep.

Enthusiasm Sparks Student Council

Enthusiasm and involvement were key words for this year's revitalized Student Council. The officers began their work in the summer by sponsoring seven free rock concerts and hosting an orientation party for sophomore and transfer students. Financed largely by the zesty SC Store, the Council directed the extensive homecoming activities, including LH's first float, the Alumni Association, and the traditional dance. At Thanksgiving, the club collected a van-load of canned food for the Salvation Army, and at Christmas children's gifts were delivered by Santa Claus in a helicopter. To represent more students, the officers opened all meetings, sponsored monthly "rap" sessions, and organized the Inter-Club Council. Springtime activities featured the gala Favorite's Ball and the gigantic carnival, the Festival of Life.

NHS Carnations Opened Spring

Students in the top 15% of the Senior Class and the top 8% of the Junior Class were rewarded for long hours of study and hard work by being selected for membership in the National Honor Society. Recognized for outstanding contributions in scholarship, leadership, service, and character, the new members were inducted during a candlelight ceremony with Reverend Thomas Shipp as guest speaker. Sponsored by Mrs. Jane Mitchell, the club initiated "Red Carnation Day" to commemorate the first day of spring. Later in the year, Senior members traveled to Berkner High School to initiate members into their newly-organized chapter.

OPPOSITE PAGE TOP: Officers are: Tom Gillman, Pres.; Martha Walker, V. Pres.; Diane Brown, Sec.; Gail Botsford, Treas.; and Karen Keitz, Rep. THIS PAGE LEFT: Janet Miller presents Dennis Taylor with his National Honor Society pin. Junior Exchange Supported Petition

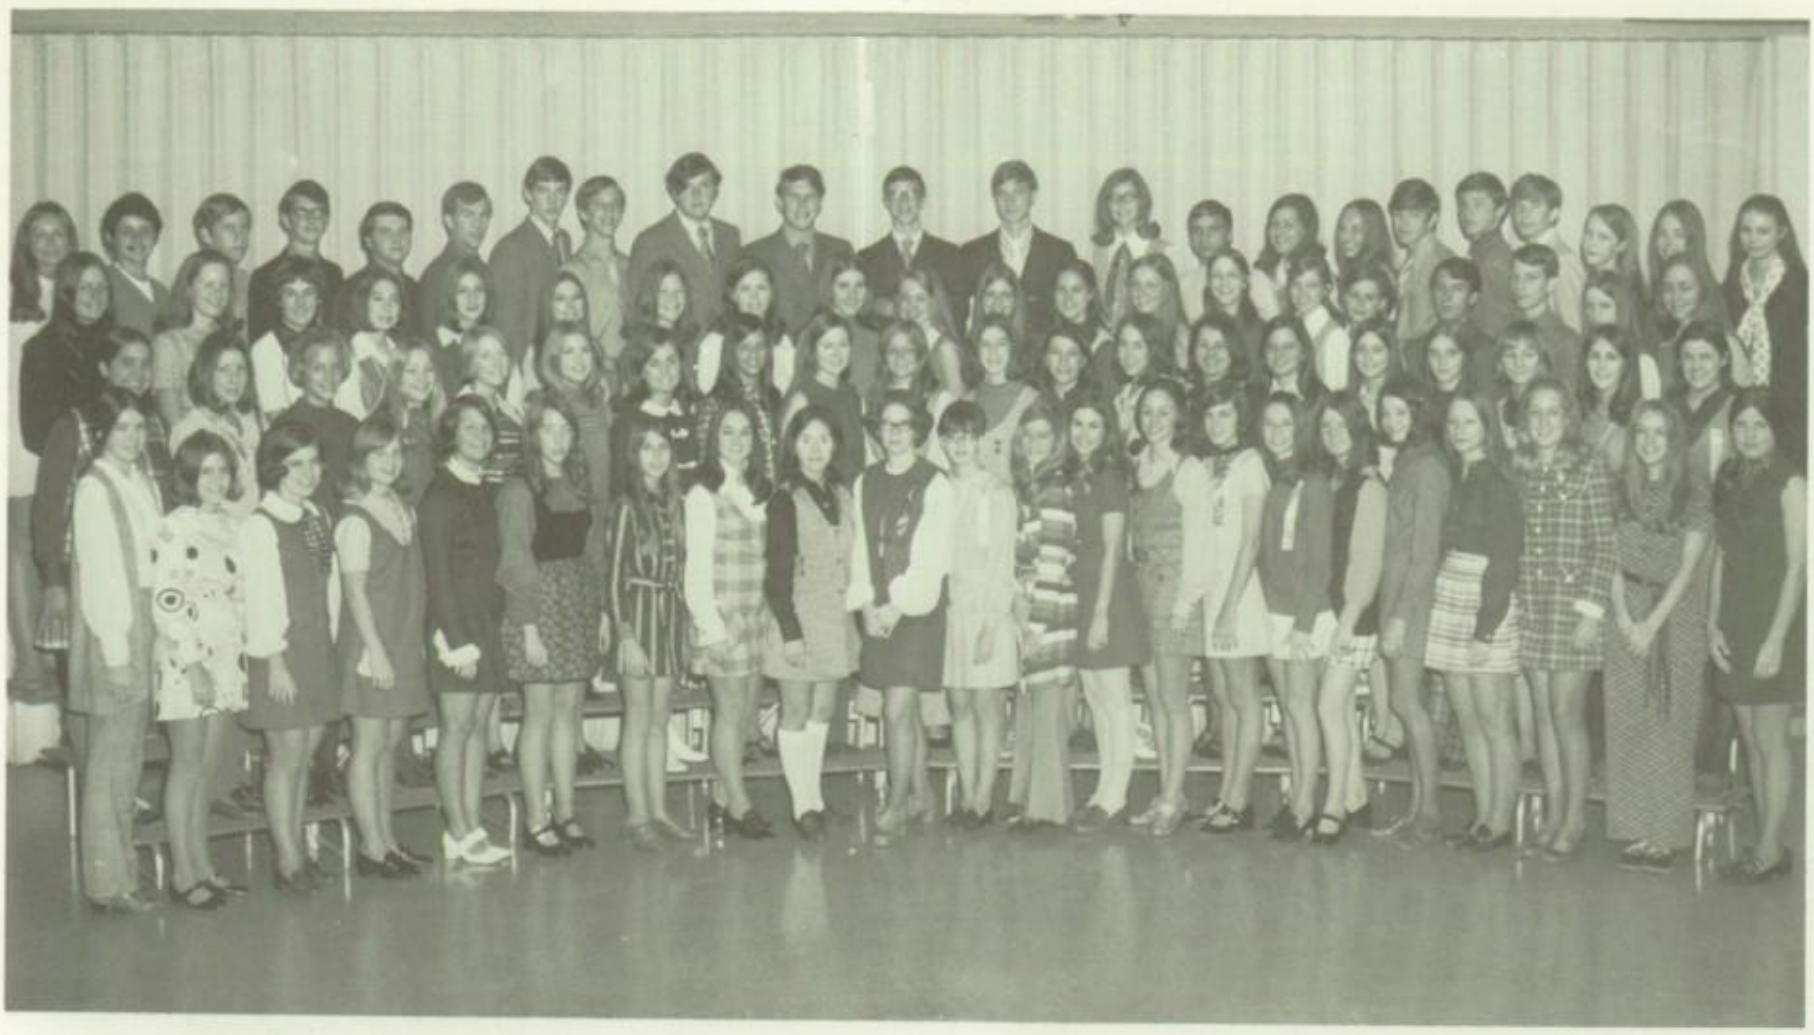
"Giving of ourselves for the privilege of serving others" was the policy carried out by the second-year service club, Junior Exchange. The club rallied the support of over 2,000 signers by sponsoring a letter-petition to Hanoi to free American prisoners. They further exemplified the theme, "Unity for Service," by coordinating a spring clean-up day.

Exchangettes Aid LH'er Community

Providing service and promoting patriotism proved fun this year for charter members of the newly-formed Junior Exchangette Club. With no traditions to follow, members started several worthwhile activities that will serve as good precedent for years to come. Sponsored by Miss Martha Walker, their projects included chartering buses to the Denison game for LH students and sponsoring two girls to Girl-State. Promoting a spring clean-up Day with competition between classes to spruce up the school grounds proved a very successful means of completing their first year of service.

THIS PAGE TOP: Officers are: Debbie Hendrix, Pres.; Cindy Garfield, V. Pres.; and Karen Clapp, Sec.

AFS Hosted Two Foreign Students

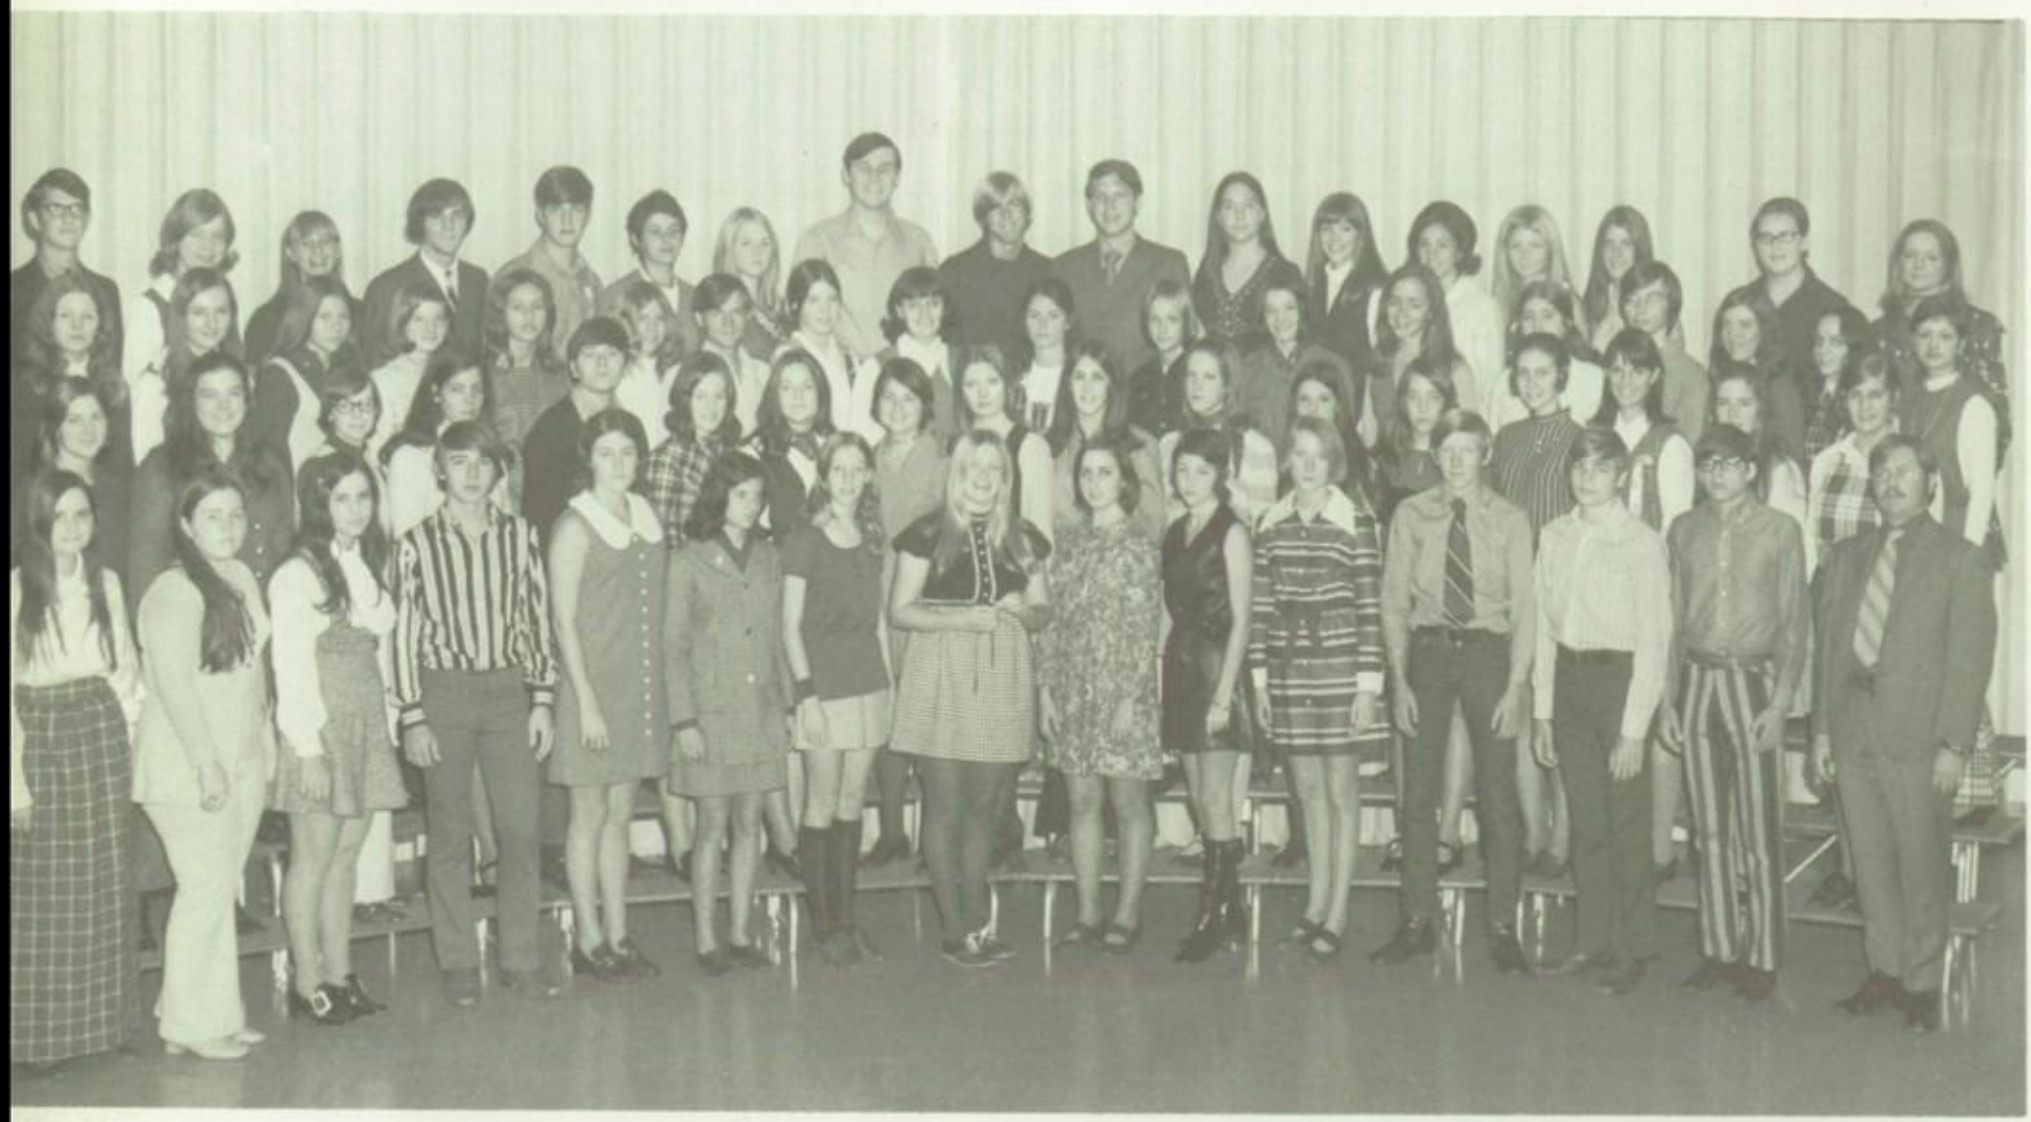


The American Field Service, sponsored by Mrs. Susan Forney and Mrs. Pam Evans hosted two exchange students, Domi Gillisson of Belgium and Kiki Arko of Sweden. Highlighting the money-making projects for AFS was the third annual AFS Girls' Olympics. Additional projects included selling 1,500 copies of the student directory and a grand "end-of-the year" banquet. The AFS also sponsored several speakers from foreign countries and hosted Robert Brown on a trip to Germany.

Twain Theater Reading Presented by LH Orators

The LHHS Forensic Association displayed its talents of effective speaking through speech tournaments, including the Lake Highlands Invitational Speech Tournament, involving 21 schools; a dinner-theater reading, "An Evening with Mark Twain;" and a musical production, the "All Wildcat Sing," tracing the history of America. Under the sponsorship of Miss Lynda Cleveland, the Speech Club led an active and successful year.

Dramatists Led Productive Year



Beginning the year with high hopes and a fresh format, the Red Masque Society, under the new sponsorship of Mr. Robert Harris and Miss Susan Turner, entertained the student body with several enjoyable plays. Their first production was Shakespeare's comedy "Twelfth Night" followed by "Great Caesar's Ghost," a three-act farce of uncanny humor. A tour of the SMU Fine Arts Building and a special viewing of "King Lear" provided added insight into theatre arts for club members. With the production of the UIL one-act contest play, "The Maker of Dreams" a full year of dramatic activities was completed.

Environmentalists Spread Concern

The newly formed Ecology Club began its history with an active and successful year. The environmentalists devoted time working together on inspiring projects including organizing a school-wide clean-up, filing environmental and ecological information at the SMU library, and co-sponsoring "Dump-Day" in conjunction with the Exchangettes. In the spring, interested club members traveled to Austin to attend the Environmental Concern Conference. Club meetings featured speakers involved in ecological projects, and films pertaining to pollution and natural wildlife.

OPPOSITE PAGE TOP: Officers are: Robert Brown, Pres.; Richard Rieves, V. Pres.; Pam Riggs, Rec. Sec.; Suzie Strickenberger, Corr. Sec.; and Paul Luttrell, Treas. Active Y-Teens Mixed Service, Parties

Through serving others and enjoying the company of fellow members, Y-Teens, sponsored by Mrs. Lynn Tull and Mrs. Becky French, provided personal growth and a better understanding of God and love. Service projects included the March for Leukemia, the March of Dimes, and providing receiving blankets for Parkland Hospital, socks for the Salvation Army, and tray favors for Doctor's Nursing Home. Members especially enjoyed the weekly meetings, which consisted of guest speakers and other entertaining programs, a Halloween party, and the annual Presentation Ball.

Officers are: Karen Hunt, Pres.; Sandy Speegle, V. Pres. for membership; Kathy Farr and Linda Short, V. Pres. for programs; Terri Loyd, Sec.; Diane Lovell, Treas.; Jana Jobe, Rep.; Carol Smith, Hist.

Petite Sorbonne Studied French Cuisine

French ice cream, fondue, and beef bourguignon encouraged the study of French cuisine customs and culture by La Petite Sorbonne. The club's activities this year also included Christmas caroling with the German Club, a French Cuisine buffet, and a Mardi Gras costume event. Concluding the festivities, the club held their traditional banquet at M. Peppe's.

THIS PAGE LEFT: Officers are: Diane Kroll, Pres.; Nan Mitchell, V. Pres. (programs); Pam Neese, V. Pres. (membership); Debbie Kershner, Sec.-Treas.; Susan Hibner, Hist.; and Janet Slaughter, Rep.

Romanism Intrigued Club

Celebrating the ancient feast of Saturnalia with a progressive dinner, the Latin Club, sponsored by Mrs. Carolyn Thomas, initiated the New Year. The Ides of March Party featured a scavenger hunt with interesting Roman games. They also traveled to the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts to see ancient Roman artifacts. After several bake sales, the Latin Club held its annual banquet. The year's agenda also included a trip to Rome, Texas for a picnic.

Authentic Delicacies Delighted German Club

The Deutscher Verein, sponsored by Miss Joyce Joslin, took a lighthearted look at German culture emphasizing the social aspects such as festival and food. The coveted bake sales have tempted dieters with authentic recipes from the "Vaterland," including Streusel, Bublanina, and the delectable Gugelhoph. Old and new members became acquainted at a barbeque picnic at Cedar Creek Lake. Traditional German festivities, such as Munich's Oktoberfest, the Christmas Weinachisfest and the Fashing were boisterously celebrated. The Deutscher Verein ended the year with a club banquet at a German restaurant.

Spanish Club Instilled International Friendship

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Mrs. Betty Montgomery, acted this year upon the dual goal: "encouraging friendship and understanding between English-speaking and Spanish-speaking students." Good times prevailed as club members participated in a round of activities, traditional and otherwise. These included a picnic, a Christmas reunion with exes, ice-skating, a car rallye, and a convention in San Antonio.

Art Brightened Season

The Arabesque Club diligently worked in many activities throughout the year. During the Christmas season, the club designed a mural in the cafeteria spreading the Christmas spirit to all. In addition to the excellent scenery for "Mark Twain," the club presented an art fair during spring open house displaying their talent and original creativity.

Rallyes Perfected Driving Safety

Precision driving in time and accuracy created better driving habits for members of the Rallye Club, sponsored by Mr. Bryant Wolf. A straight time and distance rallye highlighted February activities, while the traditional orientation and summer rallyes completed the year's events.

FHA Bettered Family Living

"Live better today and enrich the lives of our families tomorrow" is the motto of the homemaker and her hope for the future. Each year the Future Homemakers of America begin their activities with a traditional initiation dinner for new members. Major holidays brought a flurry of goodwill projects, including a birthday party at the Dallas Childrens', emergency Shelter. The girls financed their baking through stationery sales at the beginning of the year.

Faculty Awarded

Many activities highlighted the year for members of Future Teachers of America. Sponsored by Mrs. Joyce Pittman, the year began with a Halloween party, providing the teachers lounge with food for American Education Week, Teacher of the Year Awards, and a Christmas party for pre-schoolers at Juliett Fowler's home. Later activities enjoyed by the members were a pre-school Round-up, Valograms, TSTA state convention in Houston, and an Easter egg hunt for pre-schoolers. The active club explored the many aspects of the teaching career and gave the members new insight into the field of education.

SRC Explored Varied Scientific Areas

The Science Research Club inquired into several branches of scientific investigation, touching upon the fields of medicine, psychology, geology, and astronomy. Tours of Southwestern Medical School and the planetarium aided in their research. The club, co-sponsored by Mr. Kelwyn Ellis and Mr. William Winstead, hosted several guest speakers and experimented with sensitivity and communication in encounter-group sessions. Spring excited the member's curiosity of nature as they participated in a fossil finding expedition and a trip to the Wichita Mountains. In addition to scientific endeavor, the club ran the basketball concession stands and raised money to sponsor an underprivileged child overseas.

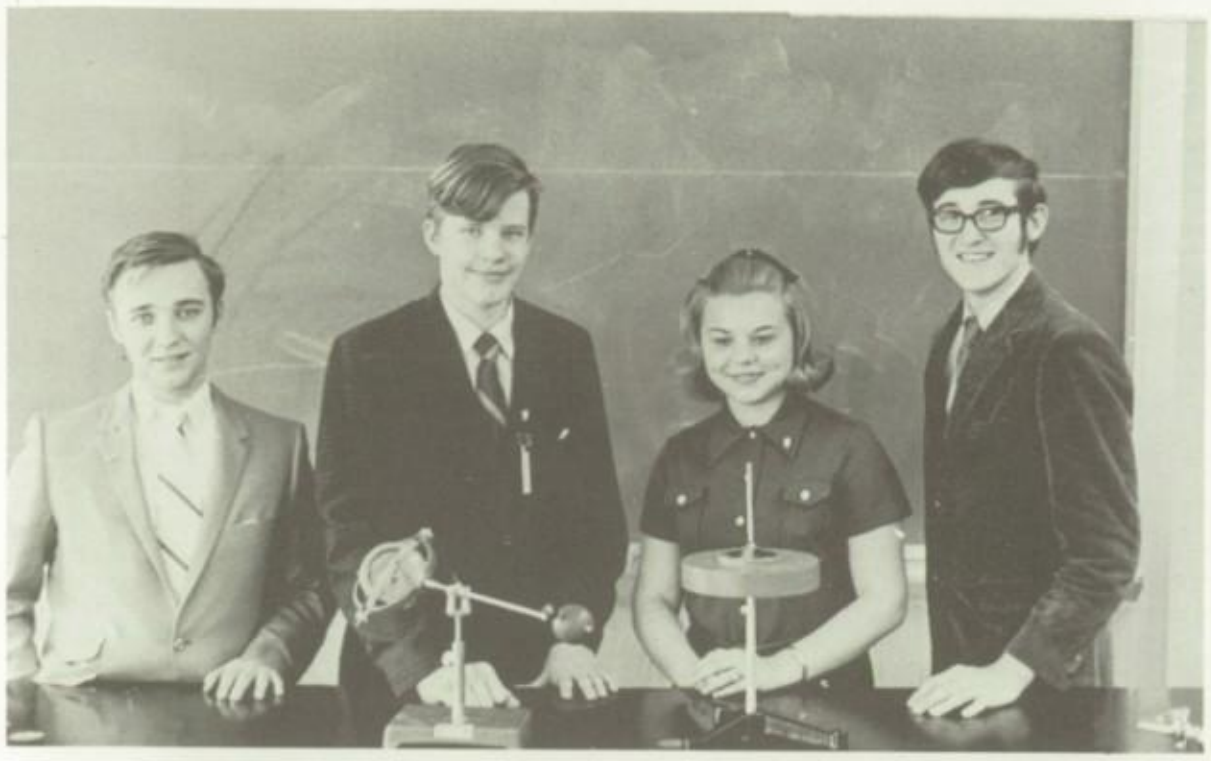
Physics Club Investigated Environment



The Physics Research Order chose environmental science as their study and maintained their purpose of providing students with opportunities to work on personal research problems.

The group was active in both the clean-up and ecological conferences sponsored by other clubs. Headed by Mr. Bryant Wolf, students participated in a club Christmas party and the Environmental Educational Conference in Austin.

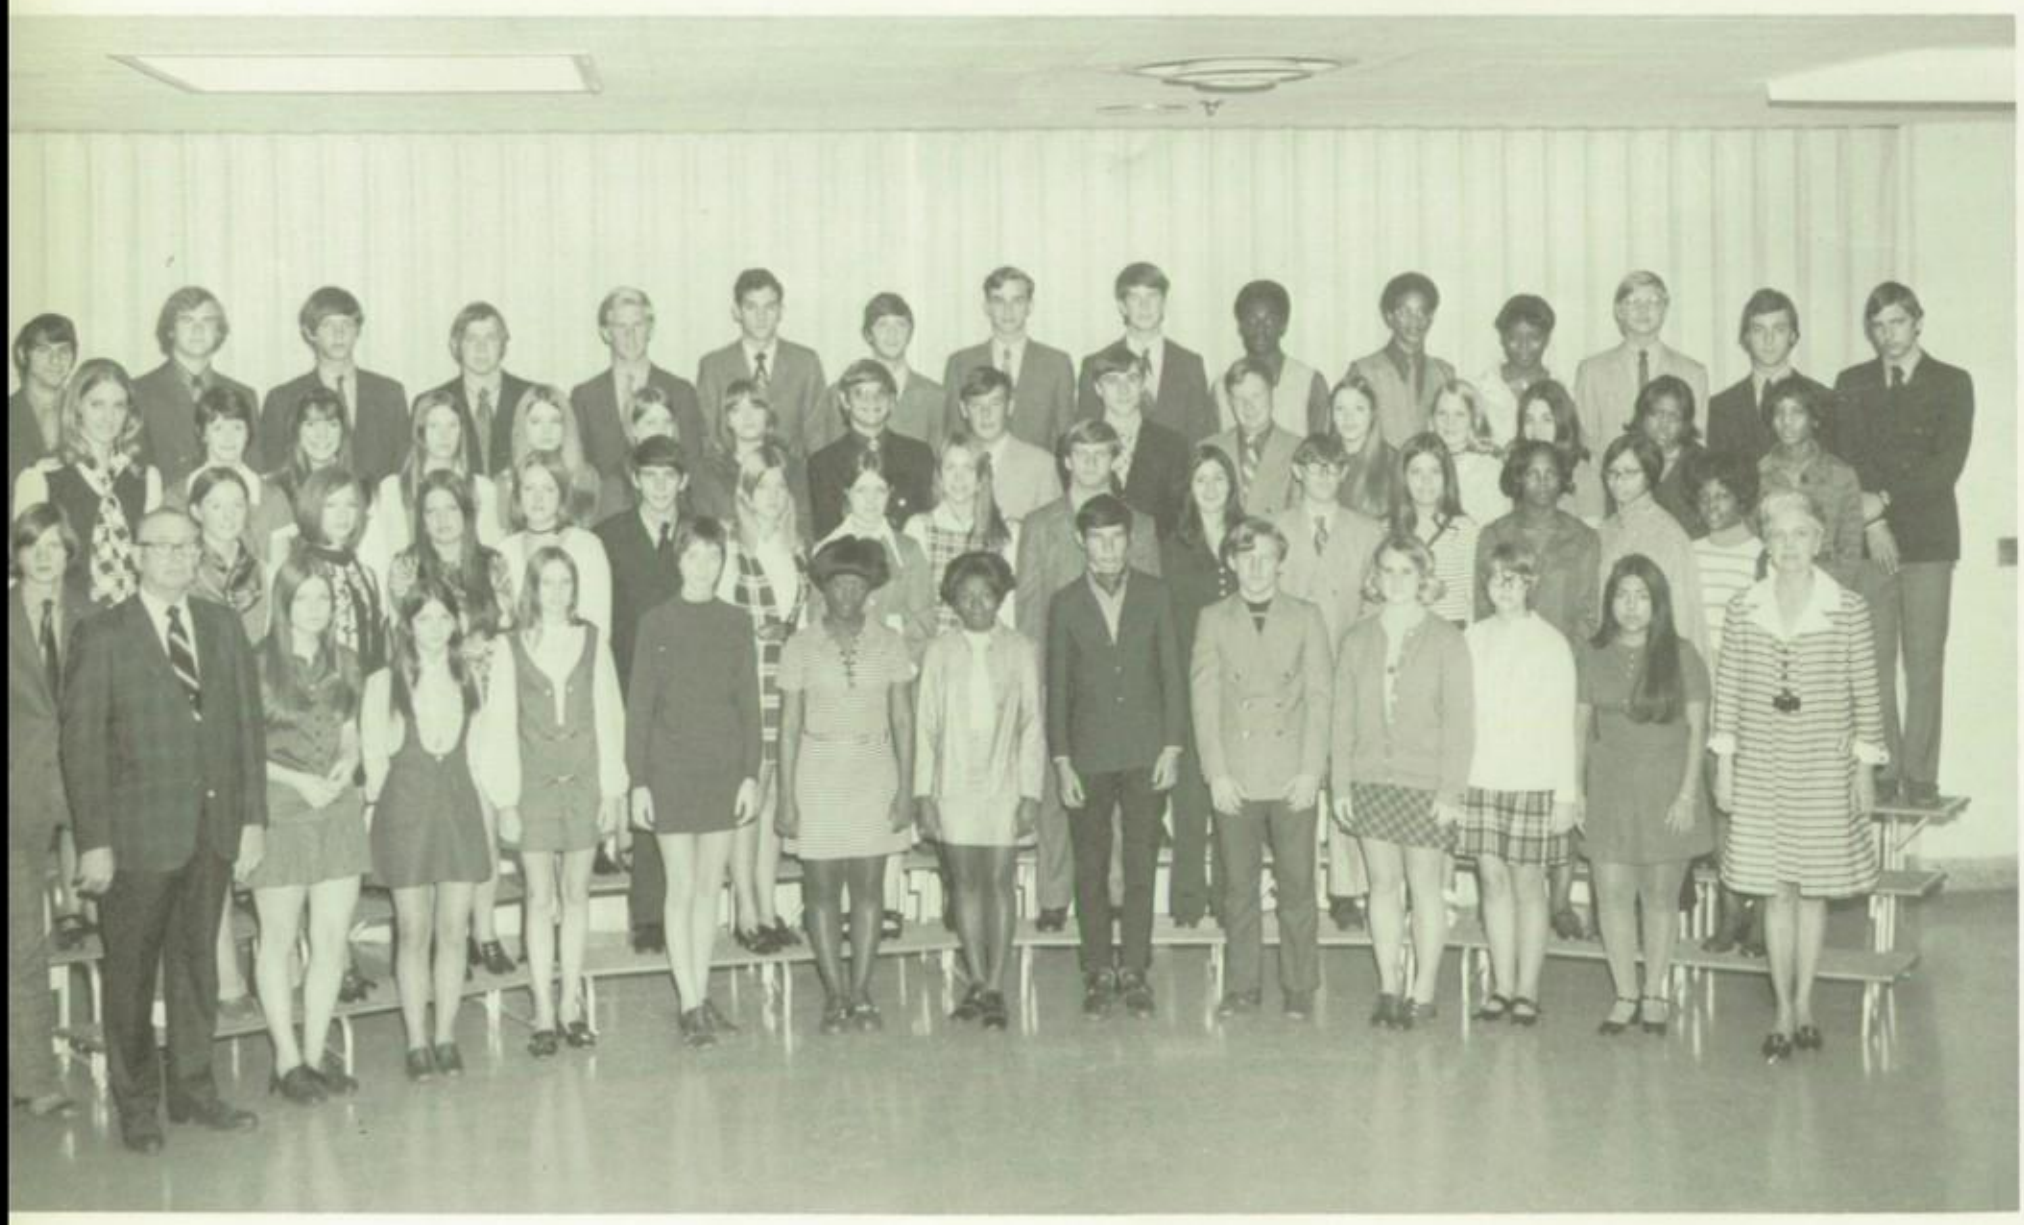
DECA Went to State

A get-acquainted party in September for all new members started the year for DECA, sponsored by Mrs. Maryetta Reid and Mr. Scott Shepard. The club set out to develop an appreciation of civic and social obligations of those engaged in distribution, and took part in a calendar-towel sale and a candy sale for their fund-raising projects. Other events included a breakfast meeting where all exes were invited, and an Employer-Employee Banquet. The DECA year was climaxed at the state convention when Gary Wright was elected vice-president, and three members placed as finalists in state competition.

Officers are: Pat Earle, Pres.; Steve Wigington, V. Pres.; Kay Hemphill, Sec.; Richard Mark, Treas.; Denise Finch, Rep.; and Gary Wright, Parl.



VICA Banquet Held

"Preparing for leadership in the world of work," was the goal set by the newly-formed VICA Club, sponsored by Mr. Jerry Davidson. This year's events included state and district VICA contests. Money for the conventions were obtained through the sale of 3,000 calendars. The club initiation, I.C.T. "Teacher of the Month Award," and the Employer-Employee Banquet were the special activities for 1970-1971. Other activities for the club included a January dinner meeting and a party for graduating senior D.E. students in May.

National Test Perplexed Mu Alpha Theta

Mu Alpha Theta members strove to broaden their understanding of the universe by delving into the depths of mathematics. Members of the 1970-71 Math Club took the National Math Test and studied results as compared to the students all over the United States and in some foreign countries. Some of the members served as pages at the Dallas meeting of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics at the Fairmont Hotel in March. To demonstrate the interest of members in areas other than academic, they participated in the All-Wildcat Sing and held a semester party at mid-term.

Officers are: Pres., Randy Preskitt; V. Pres., Ron Yen; Sec., Ann Alton; Treas., Widge Murphy; Rep., Dana Ryan.

Club Studied Computer

Beginning its first year, the Computer Math Club provided extra activities for interested students of the Computer Math class. Sponsored by Mr. Wade, members toured Computer Instruction, Inc. to see a computer in action providing added insight into the computer field. Teaching others about programming a computer at the fall and spring Open House, and having access to the computer throughout the year were other advantages club members enjoyed.

Student Writings Published in Agape

Agape, signifying the Greek version of Platonic love, was chosen as the title of the annually produced literary magazine. This short publication was compiled of student work, and a small staff collaborated to prepare and sell editions near the year's end. Moral support was provided by sponsor Mrs. Mary Ann Runberg.

Annual Contest Sponsored by Kappa Rho

The Kappa Rho, Creative Writing Club, sponsored by Mrs. Doris Williamson, strove to stimulate interest in creative writing and offered critiques and substantial writing helps to its members. The club conducted its annual school-wide writing contest, awarding cash prizes and merit certificates to winners. Special activities included the Poet's Theater in Dallas and a weekend retreat near Corsicana, Texas.

Fang Received Honors

The Fang newspaper institution, a "mouthpiece of the students", employed a new format this year. Although the traditional dither of headlines, lay-outs, and interviews plagued the staff, they also found time and energy to produce fourteen magazine-style issues and broaden the coverage outside school activities. These innovations were stimulated by sponsor Mrs. Cindi Wynne. The students reaped a myriad of words as the paper received the highest distinction of All-Texas in the Texas High School Press Association and Distinguished Merit for the Interscholastic League Press Conference. Photographer Ted Vail won second place in state for a cover picture and Susan Stinson collected a second in editorial competition.

Wildcat Worked Under Pressure

Selecting pictures, typing copy, and writing headlines under the pressure of the nearing deadline plagued members of the Wildcat staff, sponsored by Mrs. Cindi Wynne, as they worked to record memories of the 1970-71 school year. In addition to producing the Wildcat, they worked with the Student Council sponsoring the yearly Favorites Ball in February. The year was climaxed by a banquet honoring the dedicatee of the '71 Wildcat and distribution of the yearbooks in August.

THIS PAGE BOTTOM: Proof sheets prove to be not only a source of frustration, but of entertainment to sponsor Mrs. Cindi Wynne and editor Suzie Strickenberger.

Q&S Members Chosen

Quill and Scroll members were selected for the international honorary organization for outstanding journalists. Chosen from the Fang and Wildcat staffs, membership was determined by contributions to major school publications. Sponsored by Mrs. Cindi Wynne, initiation ceremonies took place at the Country Dinner Playhouse. The demanding spring activity, a softball game between each of the staffs, aroused rivalry and excitement among members.

Seniors Published Memorable Past

Sarcasm and humor together formed the basis of the Senior "Pub." Twenty selected staff members typed and edited submitted phrases from the Senior class, keeping the cover and the theme secret until distribution. Seniors recalled incidents and famous quotes from the administration, the faculty, and fellow students. The '71 "Pub" editor was Richard Rieves and was sponsored by Miss Fran Maples.

THIS PAGE LEFT: Miss Fran Maples and Susie Strickenberger laugh over a famous quote submitted to the Pub.

Rarities Collected

The newly formed Coin and Stamp Club, sponsored by Mr. Kirkly and Mr. Whitman, encouraged and promoted coin and stamp collecting. Special activities for 1970-71 included participating in several coin and stamp shows, and attending conventions in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area.

Officers are: Charles Muchmore, Pres.; Dale Staley, Financial V. Pres.; and Elizabeth Wagner, Sec.

Divers Explored Underwater World

Completing its first year, the LH Divers explored the unique life beneath the surface of the waters. After obtaining a scuba diving license for each member, the club planned several weekend excursions to Possum Kingdom and Lake Texas. As a service to the community they cleaned up lakes and rivers in the local area.

Wildlife Club Pursued the Out-of-Doors

The great outdoors captured the interest of the members of the Wildlife Club sponsored by Mr. Jerry Hunt, Mr. Mike McFarland, and Mr. Don Whitwell. The club promoted outdoor activities in hunting, fishing, canoeing and conservation. Social activities included a fishing trip to Toledo Bend, guest speakers, and an Interclub basketball game as well as regular meetings and monthly excursions.

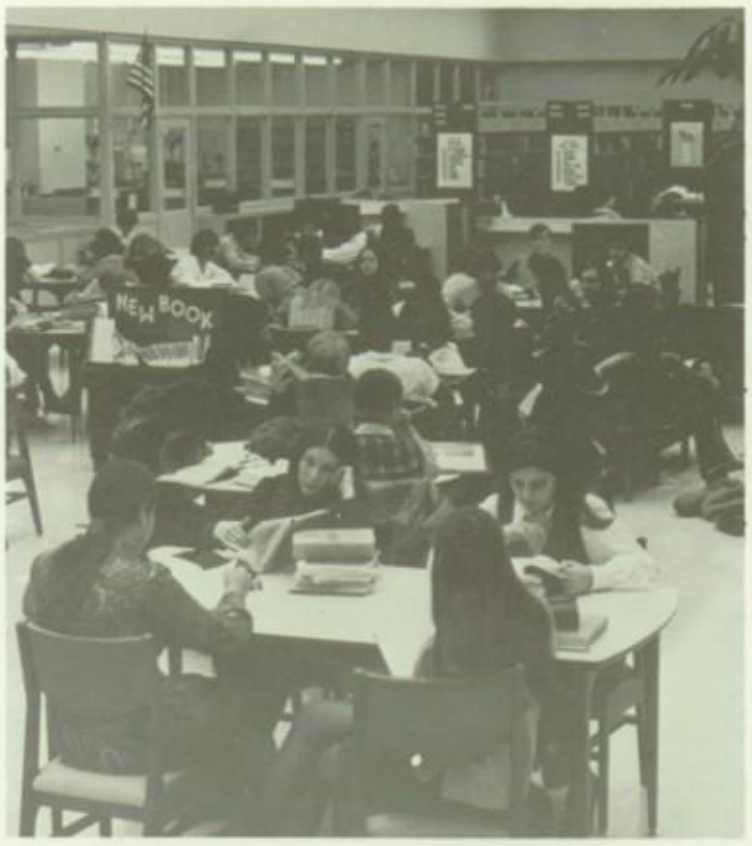
Library Offered Quiet

The Student Library Assistants have processed new books, filled cards, and taken care of the everyday work such as replacing books to the appropriate shelves. These students have also worked with the audio-visual materials. They helped keep materials up-to-date and organized, and maintained a record of efficiency in the library.



THIS PAGE RIGHT: The library provides a quiet place for students to read and study.

Girls' Choir Displayed LH Talents

Singing popular songs, the Girls' Choir sailed through the year performing at the traditional Christmas Concert and Student Assembly. They sang at local service clubs and performed the Spring Concert. The choir proved themselves capable at the yearly UIL Contest where they sang individually. Their special activity was the McKinney Choral Contest. The Girls' Choir displayed their varied and numerous talents well this year.

Choirs Entertained Audiences

Enchanting their audiences at a variety of programs throughout the year, the Mixed Choir proved their outstanding vocal ability. Under the direction of Miss Marjean Edgar, the group performed at the Varsity Revue, the Christmas program, a Spring Concert, a student assembly, and the annual University Interscholastic League Contest. A joint concert with all Richardson High School choirs was a special activity.

Chosen for outstanding ability from the Mixed Choir, Madrigals displayed their talents with a flair. The group performed at a Christmas program, the Patriotic Program, and the Varsity Revue. The Spring Concert, a student assembly, and the UIL Contest also kept the choir busy rehearsing.

Concert Band

Band Members Named to All-State

The Wildcat Band maintained its superior performance record with the aid of director Eddie Green in his first year of high school direction. The Symphonic Band contributed thirty-nine musicians to the All-Region Band, twenty-two to the All-Area Band, and eleven to the All-State Band. Lake Highlands was honored to have the most people in All-State than any other school in Area B. In addition, the Symphonic Band was named All-Texas Honor Band and represented Texas at the five states Band Convention in Texarkana. The Concert Band, under the direction of Mr. Gordon Collins, competed at the Ennis Festival in March. Both the Symphonic Band and the Concert Band performed in the Buccaneer Festival in Corpus Christi.

Orchestra Competed in UIL

The exciting sounds of an orchestra tuning up were heard as the Lake Highlands Orchestra prepared for their annual Fall Concert. Following the successful performance, the orchestra, sponsored by Mr. Larry Gebhardt, again performed in the spring with a concert open to all students and the public. Displaying their talents in a special activity, they performed in the Patriotic Program. Participation in UIL contest finalied another successful year for the Lake Highlands Orchestra.

THIS PAGE TOP: Debbie Karleskie rehearses for the up-coming orchestra performance at the Patriotic Program.

Cheerleaders, Bellboys Rang-Up Spirit

The real "ding-a-lings" at Wildcat games and pep rallies were the Bellboys, sponsored by Mr. Charlie Moore, who rang up spirit with their enthusiasm. The Bellboys are Tom Draper, Lynn Grebe, Bobby Hill, and John Vernon.

The spirit of Lake Highlands was best exemplified by the enthusiastic cheerleaders, sponsored by Mrs. Biggs, who received five first place ribbons and the spirit stick at SMU Cheerleading School. Cheering at pep rallies and games and decorating goal posts and halls helped to promote school spirit. Participating in the Varsity Review and Spring Show were among the special activities of cheerleaders Gwynne Lee, Diane Hamilton, Chuck Thompson, Joey Ehrenberger, Christie Caldwell, Suzi Scott, Carol Egerton and head-cheerleader, Peni Atwood.

Highlandettes Flash to Banner Season

Flashy smiles, high kicks, and precision marching were displayed year-round by the LH Highlandettes. Traditional half-time performances for the football season highlighted the year after a winning summer season at SMU. The high-stepping Highlandettes received one first place trophy in marching competition and a second place trophy in dancing competition. The climax of the SMU week was the presentation of the Most Outstanding Girl Award to Lieutenant Tia Allen. The Highlandettes' excellent performances continued through football season and into basketball season. Their annual Drill team Spring Show was a successful exhibition of talents in the fields of choreography and dancing. The show was a successful closing of the public performances in the 1970-71 season of the Highlandettes.

Athletes Worked Together in FCA

The drudgery of sled drills and calisthenics were brightened for many Wildcat athletes, as they explored their activities from a religious viewpoint in Fellowship of Christian Athletes. In the first year at Lake Highlands, the FCA served dinner before a Red Masque production, hosted speaker Dan Reeves of the Dallas Cowboys, and showed several films at the open meetings.

Predicted by pre-season sportscasters to go nowhere in 13-AAAA, the 1970 Wildcats substituted a surplus of teamwork and hustling for a lack of size and speed, to challenge strongly for the district title. The 1970 Varsity Wildcats included, First Row: Clarence Goins, Greg Stone, Ken Bolton, Richard Teter, Mitch Mitchell, Mike Sherman, Chuck Richey, and Richard Hartin. Second Row: Gary McKenzie, Tim Clark, Ken Cleveland, Kevin White, Frank James, Mike Barrett, Sammy Walker, Don Lennox, Creed Ford, Terry Moore, Ned Bothe, and Steve Herrington. Third Row: Greg Jessup, Doug Stafford, Buddy Johnson, Dennis Taylor, Bill Sharp, Dennis Damiens, Rusty Hall, Scott Zimmerman, Steve Baker, Trent Pearson, Terry Harris, Ronnie Reagan, and Steve Wright. Fourth Row: Gary Hannah, John Crawford, Jim Hadley, Steve Moore, Don Jarma, Mike McKendrick, Lee Travers, Bob Lane, Kirk Coppedge, and Jack Crews.

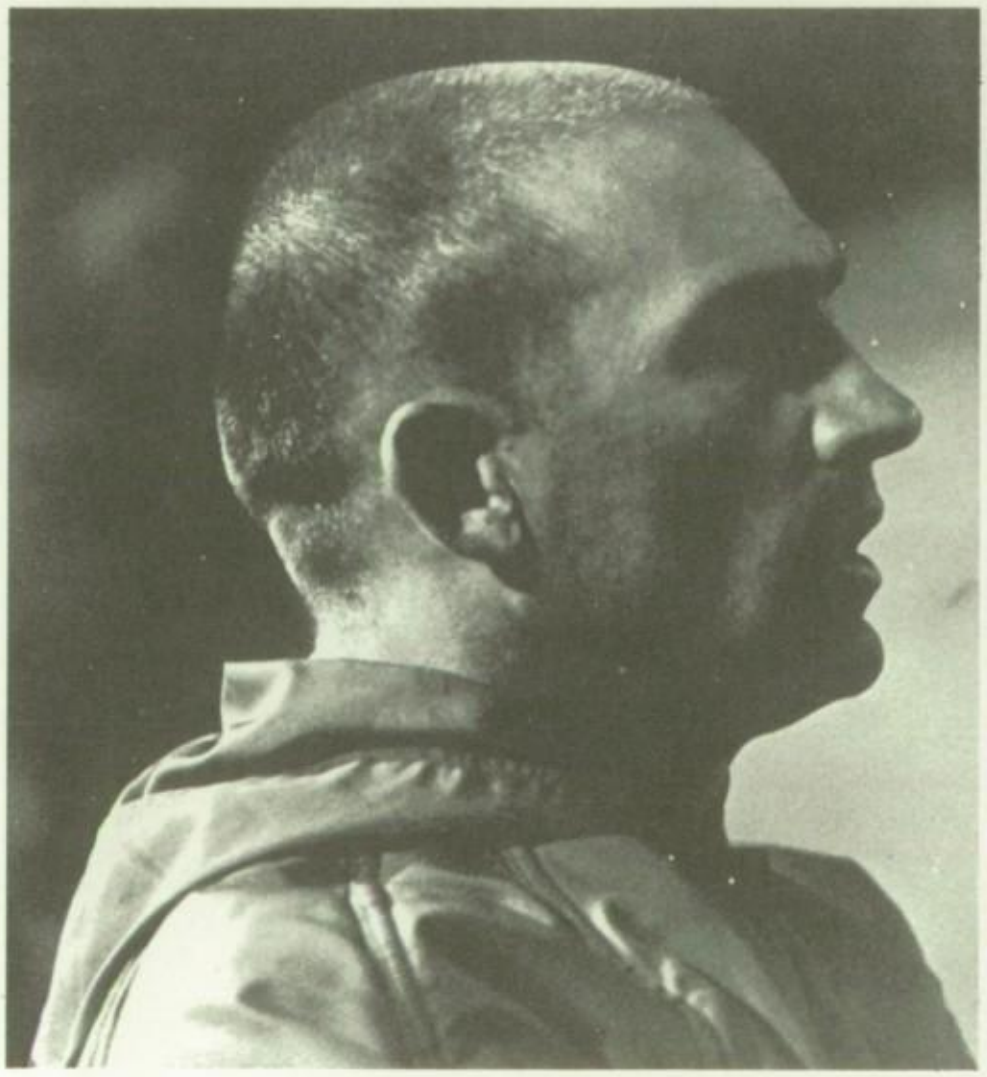
OPPOSITE PAGE RIGHT: Plotting second-half tactics against Denison, the dynamic duo of Don Jarma and Donnie Lennox broke, and then rebroke, their own records in route to All-District recognition.



Passing Combination Shines for Wildcats

The most deadly passing duo in Wildcat history, quarterback Don Jarma and split-end Donnie Lennox terrorized enemy secondaries to reap All-13AAAA honors. Jarma set every Lake Highlands career, season, and single-game passing records, and was selected the outstanding signal-caller in the Dallas area on the All-Metro team. Sticky-fingered Lennox broke the existing season and single-game mark with his acrobatic catches. Together they provided a potent punch for the LH offensive machine.

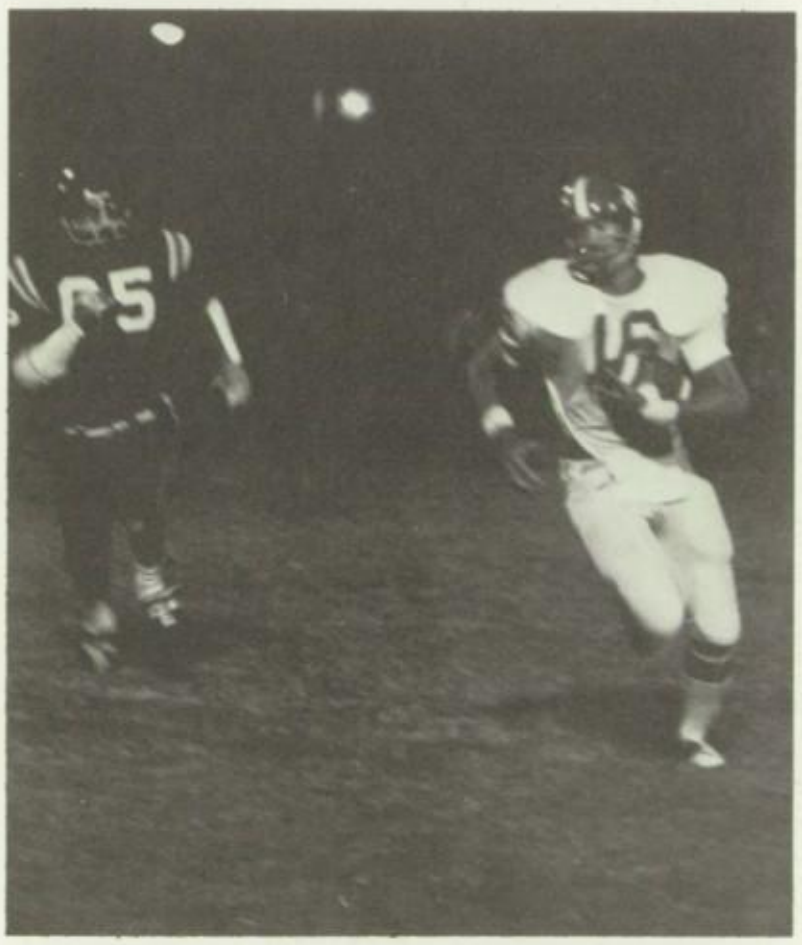
'Cats Open at 3-1

Returning only two starters from a fine 7-3 squad, the Wildcats surprised both themselves and a capacity home crowd by grabbing a 24-0 third quarter lead over W.T. White in the season opener. However, in the fourth period, the weary Wildcat secondary yielded three scoring passes to the rallying Longhorns, who fell short 24-19.

The Wildcats enjoyed a tremendous "knight" when they upset the highly-favored Kimball Knights, 16-6 in the second game.

This distinction was short-lived, however, as the Highlanders were in turn upset, 12-6, by the Carter Cowboys. The potent LH offense was sluggish on the muddy field, but fourth quarter bombs from three-year starter Don Jarma to Don Lennox and Mike Barrett nearly brought back the 'Cats.

The Wildcats of LH proved to be wilder than the Paris breed as they trampled the Blue 'Cats, 23-7, in the 13-AAAA opener.



'Cats Tie Rivals

Maintaining their unbeaten string of nine homecoming games, the Highlanders slapped Sherman, 20-7. Terry Moore and Don Jarma tallied touchdowns to complement a fine effort by the "Demolition Defense."

Lake Highlands finally gained respect from arch-rival Richardson, as the 'Cats came from behind three times to tie the Eagles, 21-21. A crunching running attack by Terry Moore and Jack Crews, and pin-point passing by Don Jarma kept the 'Cats close; but kicker Ken Cleveland was nearly the hero as he booted three crucial extra-points and narrowly missed a lengthy 40-yard field goal with six seconds to play.

Bi-district champion South Garland blemished LH's undefeated 13-AAAA record by clipping the 'Cats 26-7. Quarterback Jarma connected on 20 completions and split-end Donnie Lennox caught eight receptions to set two school records, but a fierce Colonel defense kept the Wildcats frustratingly close, but not across, the South Garland goal line.

Season Ends Midst Mire and Defeat

Fullback Rusty Hall hustled for three touchdowns and halfback Kirk Coppedge carried for one, as the LH'ers smothered Denison, 28-2.

"Catch-22" was the Wildcats' single mission against Greenville, but the Lions' speedy Mike Thomas, #22, was too slick to catch as he sprinted for four touchdowns in a 42-14 rout. The 'Cats led 7-0 on a pass from Donnie Lennox to Sammie Walker, but the rampaging Lions swept on to victory.

A cold and rainy "Friday the 13th" ended the season on a dismal note for Lake Highlands. The J.J. Pearce Mustangs used a bobbled punt and a pass interception to upset the Wildcats 10-7, and ended the LH'ers season at 5-4-1.

Junior Varsity Rambles to Seven Wins

The 1970 Junior Varsity Cubs ended their season with a 7-2-1 record. Throughout the year the JV team displayed an immense amount of team spirit as well as their individual talents. The JV members were: Mike Hobbs, Dana Dotson, Richard Hailey, Fernando Ruiz, Randy Richey, Kirby White, Tim Luther, Mike McGinnis, Terry Hawkins, Craig Stout, Jim Lane, John Haynes, Bill Pegler, Tim Tucker, Brad Salter, John Whatley, Steve Spoonts, Jerry Hoyt, Steve Campbell, Scott Cooper, Jim Asa, Jim Platt, Steve Anderson, Gordon Houston, Steve Brown, Jim Cowley, Richard Hatchel, Jim Hazen, Rob Veeder, Clif Croan, Bill Flook, Jim Myers, Larry Jackson, and Bill Potthoff.

1971 was a season of frustration for the Wildcat basketballers. Seeking to defend their district title, the second-place 'Cats fell prey to the runaway Richardson Eagles in this year's contest. The talented Lake Highlands Varsity was led by All-13AAAA guard Bobby Dryden, who headed team scoring. Sky-scrapers Chuck Patton and Paul Tedder were strong rebounders, while Carl Wright, Robert Miville, and Jeff Bilton bolstered the scoring punch.

In pre-district action the Highlanders played one of the roughest schedules in the Dallas area, yet managed a 9-10 tally. In 13-AAAA warfare the Wildcats lost in overtime to the Eagles, and slipped to South Garland and Pearce for a second place finish.

'Kits Take District Title

Posting a sparkling 26-1 record, the B-team Wildkits sprinted to their second straight district championship. Although the 'Kits did not boast exceptional height, their slick ball-handling and hard-nosed rebounding swept them past each of their taller opponents. The only blemish on their fantastic season was a two-point loss to Sherman, which was by a 76-53 licking on the 'Kits home court. With such talent in the sophomore and junior ranks, the Lake Highlands basketball powerhouse will be strong for seasons to come.

Tankers Take Honors

Wildcat swimming increased in size and developed in ability during 1970-1971. Daily workouts, team effort and spirit spurred on the Lake Highlands swimmers to compete for honors to bring home to LH.

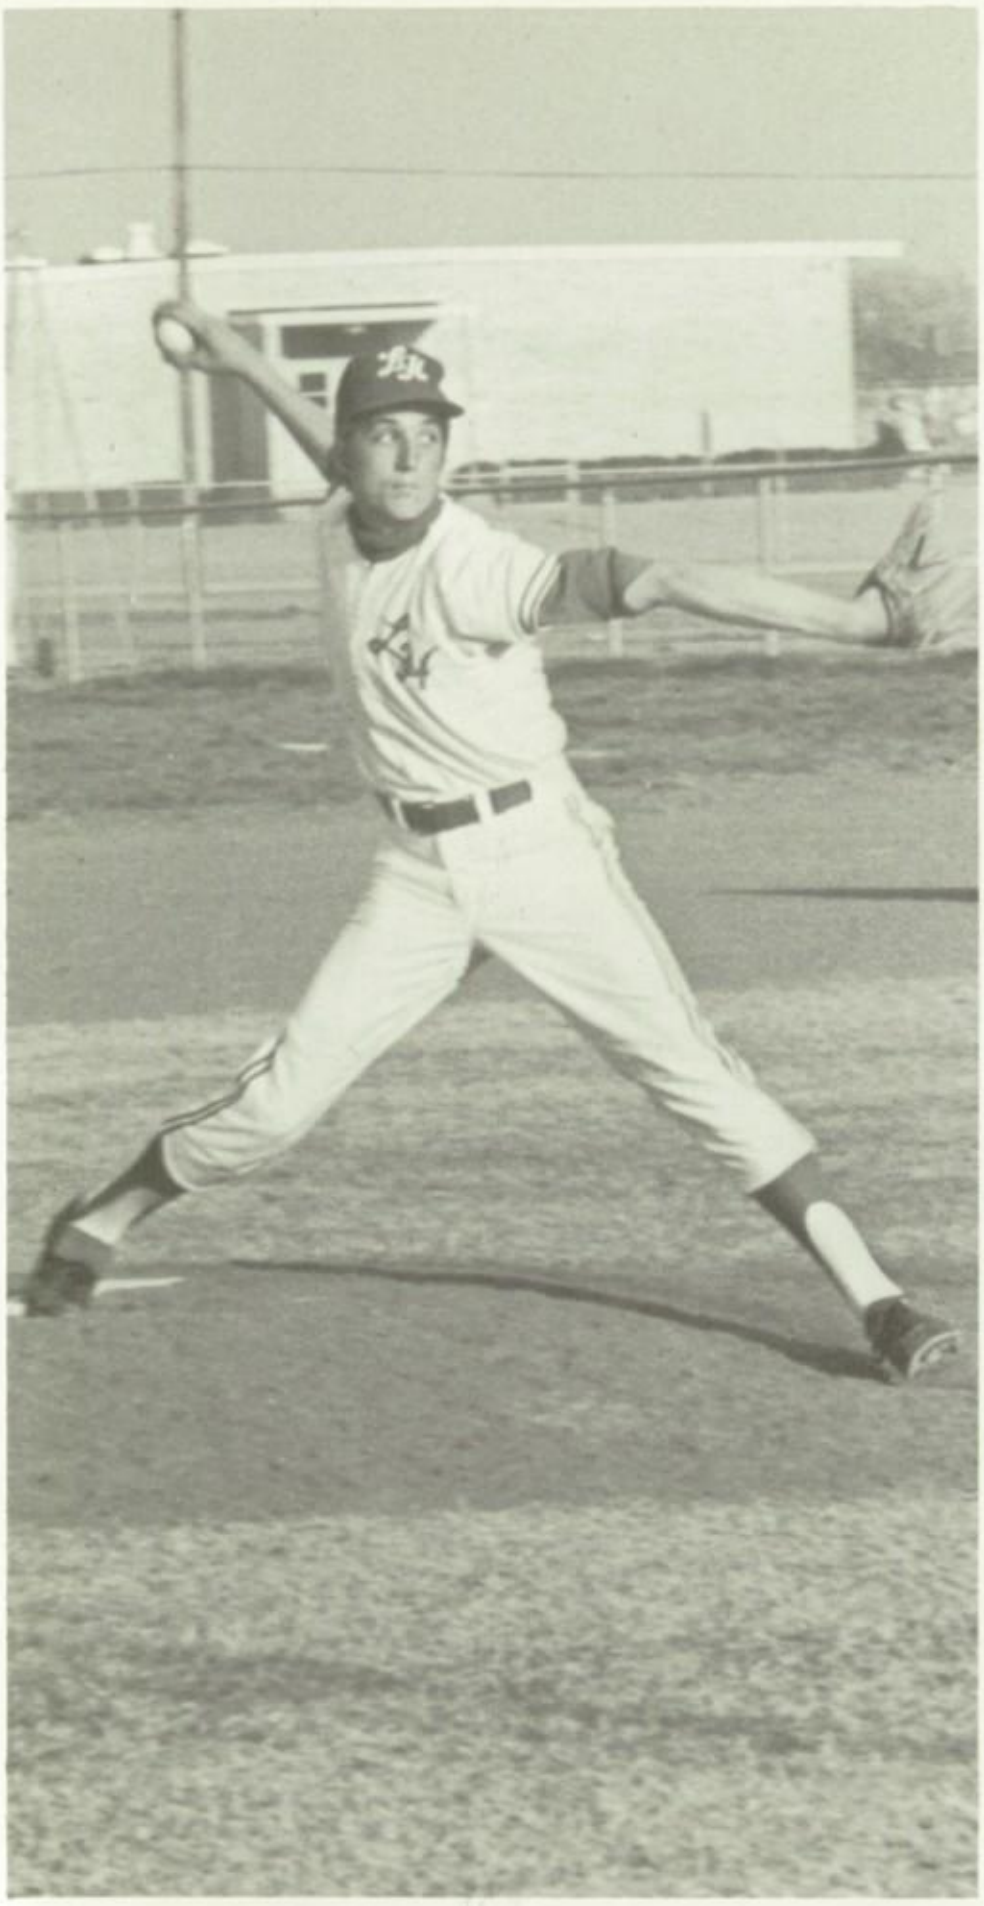
Wildcats Hit-Off Good Season



With ten returning lettermen, Wildcat baseball began with strength and experience. The improved hitting squad and the sound pitching staff helped the LH baseballers throughout the season. Hard workouts, combined with hustle and team spirit, gave the Wildcats the ability to make the best of the 1971 season. The Wildcats of the season were: Don Lennox, Rick Fountain, Randy Christian, Steve Short, John Alloway, Brooks Haney, Robert Hardin, Kerry Goad, Tim Luther, Creed Ford, Jeff Trussell, Clarence Goins, Carl Wright, Don Jarma, Ed Umbright, Dennis Taylor, and Mark Houck.

OPPOSITE PAGE BOTTOM: Randy Christian snaps his wrists to connect with a pitch. OPPOSITE PAGE BOTTOM RIGHT: Hurler Jeff Trussell flings a curve at a J.J. Pearce batsman. THIS PAGE LEFT: The ace of the Wildcat mound staff is gast-baller Jeff Trussell. THIS PAGE RIGHT: Settling under a high pop fly, Kerry Goad registers a put-out against Richardson.

B-Team Backs Varsity

The Wildcat baseball program included a secondary team during the 1971 season. These boys served as back-up players to the Varsity and gained experience throughout the season. The members of the B-team were Alan Alig, Chris Hansen, Craig Sorrels, John Scott, Ken Buchwaite, Fernando Ruiz, Jeff Teasley, Jay Swope, Ron Campbell, Andre Holman, Steve Short, Bart McCain, Robert Hardin, Doug Smerker, Steve Kent, John Alloway, Gary Sutton, Greg Stone, and Mike Moser.

Tracksters Achieve Goals

Speed, endurance, and a deep desire to achieve personal success, as well as team victories, were the goals of the 1971 Lake Highlands' track team. The devoted members of the team were: Ross Alexander, Joey Asa, Steve Brown, Ron Campbell, Ray Carrio, Kirk Coppedge, Jack Crews, Dennis Damiens, Wayne Fleming, Bill Flook, Kurt Freeman, Ross Gilson, Jon Hall, Robert Hawthorne, David Hermanot, Butch Herrell, Dick Herrell, George Hill, Barry Howell, Matt Jenniges, Craig Keith, Bruce Latimer, Steve Lester, Ben Lyle, Carl Malmberg, Charles Murphy, Bryan Ottmers, Joseph Palmore, George Pappas, Randy Reed, Bernald Reingold, Randy Richey, Kenny Robertson, Gary Schwarz, David Sissom, Garrett Smith, Lee Travers, Brad Travis, Art Travis, Jim Truitt, Ted Ubben, Nathan Whitener, and Scott Zimmerman.

Fem Tracksters Win in Second Year

Lake Highlands girls once again invaded the boys track team grounds as the second season for girls' track got underway. Female hurdlers, high jumpers, runners, and competitors from all events infiltrated the LH track and field program. The boys were helpful in giving advice and pointers to the girls in order that they could improve and become a winning team.

LH Represented in Golf and Tennis

The 1970-71 tennis teams competed in many matches to compete for Lake Highlands. Great individual and team effort was displayed by the boys and girls that participated in the tennis program at LH.

Pars and birdies were more prevalent on the scorecards of the LH golfers in the meets that they participated in during the 1971 season. The preceding years of experience seemed to be an important asset to becoming a winning team. The Lake Highlands golfers for the season were: John Camp, Mike Cummings, Mike Gonie, Chuck Hulett, Bruce Ligon, John Neal, Jim Osborne, Jim Parrish, Tim Parrish, and Dan Rybak.

LH Grapplers Compete in Beginning Year

"Grapplers" were new to the LH athletic program in 1971. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Robert Harris, the newly formed wrestling team competed in numerous matches to gain the support of the LH student body, and to obtain experience that benefited the team. The 1971 wrestlers were: First Row: Bill Dean, Dale Huddleston, David Ewing, and Stanley Pleasant. Second Row: Richard Morrison, James Marshall, Brad Cotton, Kevin White, and Coach Robert Harris. (Not Pictured: Richard Hartin and Tim Clark.)

Faculty

"I know no answers to help you on your way;
The answers lie somewhere at the bottom of the day.
But if you've need for love I'll give you all I own;
It might help you down the road till you've found your own.

Administration Guides Faculty

The Success of each new year at Lake Highlands is achieved through the dedicated work of the administration together with the students. The combined efforts of Principal A. M. Anderson and his Vice-Principals Jerry Green, Tom Whitman, and Mike Ogg, have provided Lake Highlands with the strong foundation needed for academic, as well as extra curricular activities.

Seniors Lead Active Final Year

Involvement was a key word this year, as Seniors provided the leadership and enthusiasm in making Lake Highlands a more "real" and enjoyable place. Whether in Student Council planning the "Festival of Life," in drama class rehearsing for "Great Caesar's Ghost," or in the kitchen scrubbing pans for the Chicken Dinner, Seniors found that co-operation in a common cause creates strong ties among the participants. For many years after graduation, Seniors will remember 1970-71 as a year of unity at LH.

1971 Remembered as a Collage of Emotions

1970-71 will be remembered as a collage of emotions and feelings: the long-awaited joy of the "triumphant tie" at the Richardson football game . . . the exhaustion after completing that last exam . . . the exhilaration of strumming "Black Rose" at the Varsity Revue . . . the pride of boasting nine musicians in the All-State Band . . . the determined dedication at the Walk for Dimes . . . the expectation before the Highlandette Spring Show . . . the frustration after losing an important election . . . the reflection of a mystic candle at the Prom. Perhaps the greatest feeling is yet to come, as today's Seniors shed their childhood to experience the awe of facing tomorrow's challenging world as an adult.

Juniors Participate in Yearly Activities

The enthusiastic Class of '72 emerged triumphantly from a perplexing sophomore year to meet the challenges demanded of them as Juniors. Homecoming activities, the Varsity Revue, and the A.F.S. Olympics were a few of the traditional activities Juniors eagerly participated in. Continual ingenuity was proven by the sponsorship of the Car Bash and Dessert Social, both successful fund raising projects. Finding a way to profit the school and their treasury at the same time, student-designed Wildcat sweatshirts were sold. Undying class spirit was shown by the winning of the spirit stick for the best decorated hall, spirit shakers, and all round school spirit. Juniors boosted Christmas spirit with a night of caroling with festivities afterwards, open to the entire school. The junior class has combined involvement with fund raising to produce an active class.

Juniors Clinch AFS Victory

Junior Olympic's representatives "The Heavies" clinched first place in the annual AFS Girls Olympics. The team won first place in the Balloon Reach Contest and gained a second place title in all other feats. "The Heavies" were represented in the Ping-Pong Ball Race by Miss Jennings and Mrs. Vandament. Cheering the Juniors on to victory were Steve Brown, Kerry Dykes, Allen Hamilton, Larry Jackson, Jim Lane, David Pace, David Schara, and Chauncey Nealey. Bill Pegler was selected as the Junior's nominee for AFS Sweetheart.

Juniors Plan Dessert Social

For the first time, the Juniors replaced the annual class dinner during Open House, with a Dessert Social. The overwhelming response to the massive bake sale made it a profitable success. The bounty was provided by hard-working girls and a few mothers drafted to the project by persuasive Junior boys. The boys also displayed their creativity by working as bus boys and dishwashers. The triumph of the Dessert Social inspired the Juniors to sponsor other new fund raising projects.

Sophomores Active in LH Events

The high-spirited Sophomore Class enthusiastically participated in the many traditional activities of an LH year. Sophomores competed in the AFS Girls' Olympics, performed in the Varsity Revue and the Red Masque's production of "Twelfth Night." The Class of 1973 also originated their own fund-raising event — the Sophomore Chili Dinner. Throughout the year, the Sophomore Class demonstrated its unity and enthusiasm in every activity.

Sophomores Host Chili Dinner

The hard-working Class of 1973 provided funds for their treasury by sponsoring the first sophomore Chili Dinner. Cooking and serving chili, wiping tables, and washing dishes kept the sophs busy throughout the dinner. Unity and teamwork proved to be the formula for a great success.

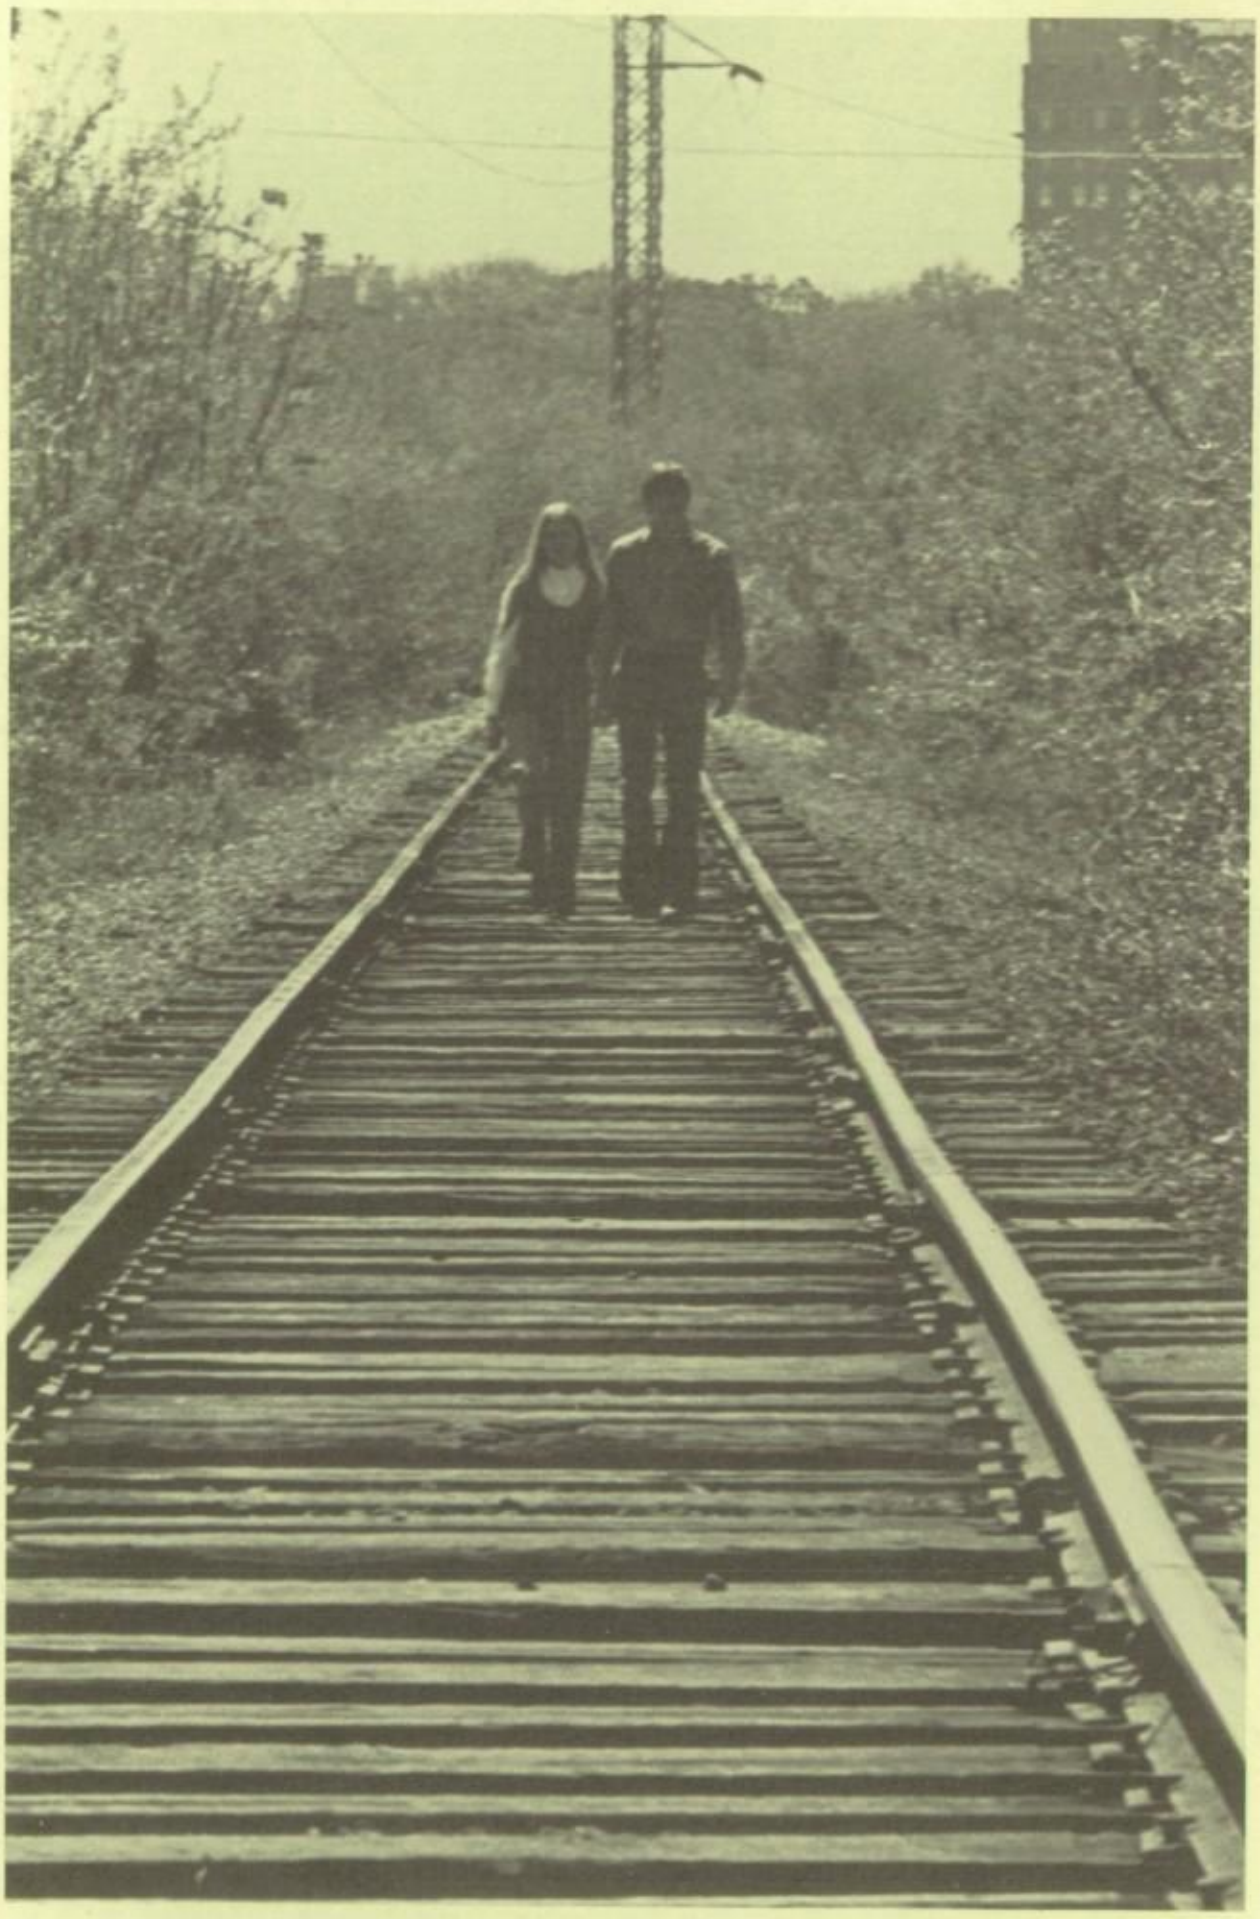
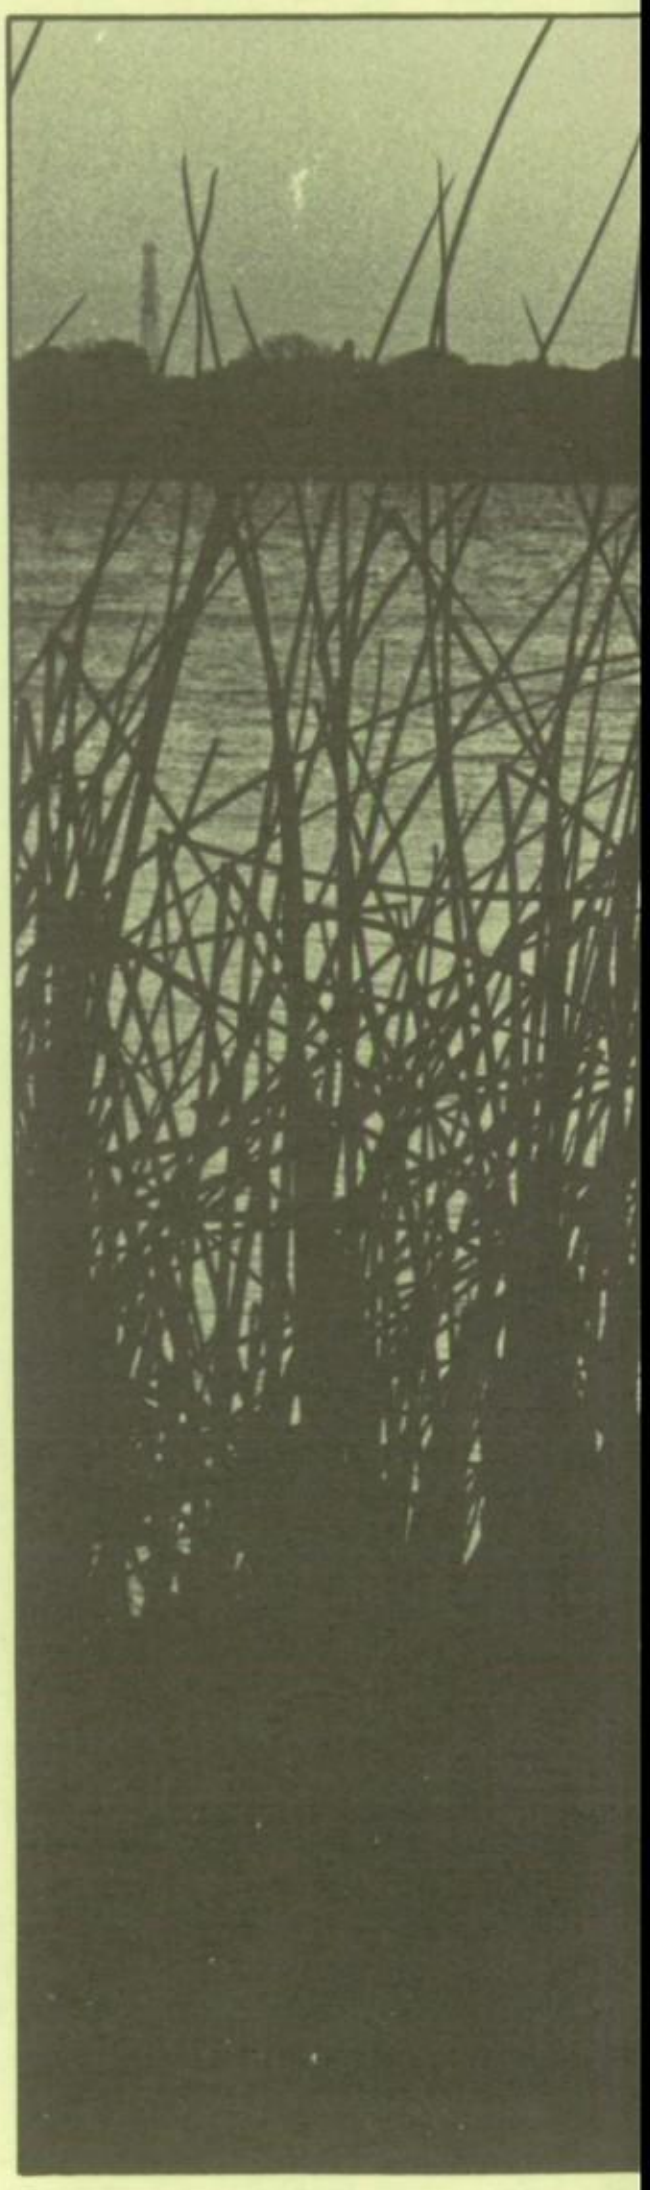
TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY
"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"





"Each of us was made by God
and some of us grew tall.
Others stood out in the wind their branches bent and fell.
Those of us who walk in light must help the ones in darkness up.
For that's what life is all about and love is all there is to life."
